

III. Library Services

- A. The Library staff will provide guidance and assistance for people to obtain the information they seek as recorded in print, information technology and audio-visual resources.
- B. The Library accepts a responsibility for securing information beyond its own resources by borrowing inter-library loan materials for patrons which are not owned by the Library and which cannot be purchased or materials for which the demand does not justify purchase. The Library will at all times cooperate with other Libraries to strengthen the services and resources of the Library.

- C. The Library will lend to other libraries materials which are requested for patrons and which are not available in the borrowing Library. Patrons of the Bartley Public Library have priority in the use of materials.
- D. The Library staff will initiate programs, story hours, exhibits, book lists, training sessions, etc., to stimulate the use of Library materials for the enlightenment of people of all ages.
- E. The Library staff will cooperate with civic and community agencies and organizations to help with their program materials.
- F. The Library staff will supplement, but cannot perform the functions of school and other institutional libraries which are designed to meet curriculum needs.
- G. Periodic review will be made of library services to determine whether the needs of the community indicate that present services should be discontinued or other services should be added.
