

Parental Consent Form:

(to be completed by parent/guardian of minors under 19.)

Parents are ultimately responsible for the Internet information selected and/or accessed by their minor children as the library filtering or blocking, if used, may not cover all sources of offensive material. Misuse of Internet access on the library computers will result in loss of computer privileges permanently. This includes, but is not limited to failure to comply with all or any part of the Library's Internet Use Policy and/or tampering with operating systems.

No patron under the age of 19 years old is allowed to use the library computers for chatting or interacting with others under any circumstances. If the minor child goes to a website or game room that has chatting that can be turned off they are allowed to use it as long as the chat is turned off and is not activated. Under no circumstances are they allowed to log onto instant messaging or message boards of any kind.

I and my minor child have read and reviewed the Internet and computer acceptable use policies for the Bartley Public Library and we (my child and I) agree to the above conditions and terms of the policies.

I give my permission to allow my minor child to access the Internet and World Wide Web via the public computer at the Bartley Public Library.
