Curb-Side Service, Bookdrop Open, Internet via WiFi, Public Access to the Shelves and Computers	limited number of patrons in library by appointment according to our small space.(less than 10) limit time spent to 15 minutes for books and 30 minutes for computer use, with only one chair at each computer. Must be 14 or older. Requiring hand sanitizer be for touching books is a good idea. Perhaps first hours open reserved for senior citizens or those with health issues. We only have one restroom so NO PUBLIC RESTROOMS will be available. Require a mask of all staff and patrons, if patrons don't want to wear one we can offer curbside pick up for them. Toys have been put away or covered and also no magazines or newspaper available to patrons. Maker spaces closed. No LEGO Club.
	Building Closed, staff available, WiFi available, curb-side pickup

	For now the Library will remain open but we may be making changes in the future. If you are social distancing but would still like books/dvds/puzzles/audio books on dvd please contact the library by phone or through facebook and we will deliver to your door within Callaway. Now might be a good time to explore our Overdrive ebook collection! If you would like to access Overdrive contact the library so I can add you to our database, then download the Overdrive app to your digital device (iphone or android based phones/tablets). Go through the steps to set up an account. It will allow you to download ebooks and audiobooks. An internet connection is necessary to download but not to read/listen to the books. Please contact me if you have any questions. 308 836 2610
	Reopening May 11th, with restrictions. No patrons under the age of 14. One person per family. 30 minute time limit. Hours for vulnerable population, M-F, 8-9am. General public hours, M-F, 9-5.

	Building closed; staff available. Pickup available. When we do open - we will be opened on a limited schedule so that the staff can disinfect the library spaces after we close the doors. We will not be paid overtime if we stay longer than our regular open hours. We have plexiglass partitions at the desk but none separating the catalog computers - so only one will be available for use. We decided to just close off the lower level to the public so that it's less space to clean every day.
Curb-Side Service, Bookdrop Open, Take-Away Crafts and/or Activity Packs, Online Story Time, Internet via WiFi, Copies, Fax, etc. by Appointment, Internet by Appointment, Public Access to the Shelves and Computers	Building closed; curbside pickup available Tuesdays and Thursdays, noon-8. Bookdrop Open, Online Story Time, Internet via WiFi, Public Access to the Shelves and Computers	WiFi (Hot Spot) Available Outside of Building. Parking Lot. Book Drop Open Still evaluating children (Patrons) coming in. Just had a Mother call and she asked about her children coming in and if masks were required. We are very small so I request them to use good judgement and respect for each other and each one.
	Closed until further notice

Bookdrop Open, Internet via WiFi, Copies, Fax, etc. by Appointment, Public Access to the Shelves and Computers	We have been lucky and were able to remain open during the entire shutdown phase. However, we do hope to open on June 15th with a soft opening, allowing access to the library computers and shelves but limiting in-library time. We will also limit numbers until all restrictions have been lifted.
	Building closed. Curbside pickup available. Books may be returned at Mac's Super Food.
Curb-Side Service, Bookdrop Open, Online Programming, Internet via WiFi, Copies, Fax, etc. by Appointment, Internet by Appointment, Public Access to the Shelves and Computers	Starting with continuing Books by the Back Door and adding appointments, then opening slowly to the public (first by 10 people, then adding Saturdays back, adding nights back, then when we get to no restrictions, adding in-person programming back.
