CENTRAL PLAINS LIBRARY SYSTEM NEWSLETTER

Educate | Connect | Inspire

What's Your Book Group Reading?

Good books bring people together. October is National Reading Group Month and the Central Plains Library System is preparing for it. We have purchased a number of new sets and will be adding some more donated ones, too. Keep in mind that October is the perfect time to celebrate the joy of shared reading and to start a group.

One of the main concerns about starting a group is where to find book sets and discussion guides. Book Club Kits are available from the Nebraska Library Commission and the four Regional Library Systems, in addition to a number of Nebraska libraries that have Book Bags to loan. For discussion guides, there is a terrific resource called Reading Group Guides that has tips to help your Reading Group get started, select books, and there are more than 5,000 reading guides available on this website. Each printable guide includes a bit about the book, some information about the author, and a number of questions that will inspire a meaningful discussion.

Here is a list of the most recently added Book Sets in the Central Plains Library System's collection:

- Golden Sower Little Blue Stem (Picture Books) 2 sets
- Golden Sower Honeybee (Chapter Books--2 c. each title)
- Golden Sower Meadowlark (Novels--2 c. each title)
- Frozen River by Ariel Lawhon (10 copies)
- Never Give Up by Tom Brokaw (10 copies)
- Spare by Prince Harry, the Duke of Sussex (10 copies)
- Tailspin by John Armbruster (9 copies)
- Things Don't Break on Their Own by Sarah Easter Collins (10 copies)
(See page 5 for summaries of these titles.)

The System considers all requests for Book Sets and will purchase them when our budget allows.

Happy Reading!

NEW BOOK CLUB KITS AT CPLS

Tailspin by John Armbruster (9 copies)
Donated by Broken Bow Public Library

World War II tail gunner Gene Moran fell four miles through the sky without a parachute and lived. Captured by the Germans, he survived a harrowing eighteen months as a prisoner of war, including a six-hundred-mile death march in 1945 across Central Europe. When Gene returned home, he kept those memories locked up for nearly seventy years. But when John, a young history teacher, learns of Gene's amazing fall, he's desperate to learn more. Finally, Gene agrees.

Frozen River by Ariel Lawhon (10 copies)

Maine, 1789: When the Kennebec River freezes, entombing a man in the ice, Martha Ballard is summoned to examine the body and determine cause of death. As a midwife and healer, she is privy to much of what goes on behind closed doors in Hallowell. Months earlier, Martha documented the details of an alleged rape committed by two of the town's most respected gentlemen—one of whom has now been found dead in the ice. But when a local physician undermines her conclusion, declaring the death to be an accident, Martha is forced to investigate the shocking murder on her own.

Never Give Up by Tom Brokaw (10 copies)

Tom's father, Red, left school in the second grade to work in the family hotel—the Brokaw House, established in Bristol, South Dakota, by R. P. Brokaw in 1883. Eventually, through work on construction jobs, Red developed an exceptional talent for machines. Tom's mother, Jean, was the daughter of a farmer who lost everything during the Great Depression. They met after a high school play, when Jean played the lead and Red fell in love with her from the audience. Although they didn't have much money early in their marriage, especially once they had three boys at home, Red's philosophy of "Never give up" served them well.

Things Don't Break on Their Own by Sarah Easter Collins (10 copies)

Twenty-five years ago, a young girl left home to walk to school. Her younger sister soon followed. But one of them arrived, and one of them didn't. Her sister's disappearance has defined Willa's life. Everyone thinks her sister is dead, but Willa knows she isn't. Because there are some things that only sisters know about each other—and some bonds only sisters can break. Willa sees fragments of her sister everywhere – the way that woman on the train turns her head, the gait of that woman in Paris. If there's the slightest resemblance, Willa drops everything, and everyone, and tries to see if it is her.

Spare by Prince Harry, the Duke of Sussex (10 copies)

For the first time, Prince Harry tells his own story, chronicling his journey with raw, unflinching honesty. A landmark publication, Spare is full of insight, revelation, self-examination, and hard-won wisdom about the eternal power of love over grief.

BOOK CLUB SPOTLIGHT AT NLC

CONTRIBUTED BY MACKENZIE MARROW

For this week's Book Club Spotlight, we are visiting a favorite of mine since I was nine years old, and when my roommate saw the book on our table she ran to grab her own copy- excited to revisit the world herself. The Penderwicks by Jeanne Birdsall immediately draws the reader in with a gorgeous cover; and its pastoral setting is like falling into the world of The Secret Garden. The Penderwick sisters, with their charming wit and a tendency for mischief rivaling the March sisters, culminate in a timeless story that spans five books. Following "a family that believes in truth and honor, yet can't seem to stay out of trouble" [x], this modern classic has been translated into 30 languages and most deservedly won the 2005 National Book Award for Young People's Literature.

Mr. Penderwick, a mild-mannered botanist who frequently speaks in Latin to his four young daughters, has booked the clan a summer getaway to a cozy cabin in rural Massachusetts. After getting lost, the Penderwick sisters, Rosalind (12), Skye (11), Jane (10), and Batty (4), discover their small cottage is nestled in a grand estate named Arundel. The rambunctious children are told to behave as the owner, the stuffy Mrs. Tifton, doesn't take kindly to ruckus. But soon, they are out on an adventure of a lifetime- braving bulls, hiding in the expansive gardens, and enlisting Mrs. Tifton's son, Jeffery, in their daring escapades.

"And then I'd ask you to have pity on motherless girls brought up without a woman's gentle influence, which doesn't really count, because our father is gentle, but I thought it sounded good"

~ Jeanne Birdsall

The Penderwicks: A Summer Tale of Four Sisters, Two Rabbits, and a Very Interesting Boy is a delight that enchants 19 years later. It's not a tale of growing up but of the present. The responsibilities of an elder sister, young courage, individuality, and the unbreakable family bond. Birdsall revels in character and atmosphere, letting the sisters take her wherever they want to go next. Perfect for a book group of young readers wanting to hold onto the last bit of summer or adults who still feel the magic of inhibition and promise.

If you're interested in requesting The Penderwicks for your book club, you can find the Request Form here. There are 11 copies. (A librarian must request items)

Don't Forget About...

The Nebraska Regional Library Systems and the Nebraska Library Commission have teamed up to provide access to Reader Zone. This web-based software lets you create paperless reading logs. Your patrons can report their progress through the Reader Zone app or via the Reader Zone website. You will be able to see statistics and reports without having to compile them yourself. This program is free for your library. If you are not familiar with Reader Zone, click on this link.

You will be able to create multiple "groups" to best serve your community's needs. For example - you might create a group for young readers that has the goal based on the number of books read per week, one for teens based on number of minutes spent reading per month, and then one for adults that has per-page milestones.

This system is available to public, school, and academic libraries year-round for reading programs for all ages. Click here to sign up now!

Contact denise.cpls@gmail.com if you have any questions.

Summer Reading Adventures at CPLS Libraries 2024

Hastings Public Library hosted a Cuddly Campout. Families brought stuffed friends to a makeshift campout where we sang campfire songs, read interactive stories, and made shadow puppets. Kids hung out in tents and made up stories with their shadow puppets and flashlights as well as a few other simple camping crafts. After the fun, we enjoyed smores and hot dogs to wrap up the program.

Wildlife Encounters of Nebraska visited with a variety of animals and Stomp, Chomp, and Roar was a blast. Dinosaur Ranger Anthony returned this summer to share facts about dinosaurs, fossils, and paleontology with real-life examples. He brought along his life-size baby Spinosaurus and did a gigantic volcano experiment that wowed everyone.

Lexington Public Library held a Gardening Adventures class that allowed children to explore the outdoors and learn about the importance of plants in our ecosystem. The kids had the opportunity to plant their own pots and take them home at the end of the program, fostering a sense of responsibility and connection to nature.

In the Gift of Caring class held at Lexington Middle School, students were educated on the various organizations within our community that strive to create a safe and thriving environment. To show their appreciation, the students crafted a stunning sunflower wreath to donate to these organizations. The culmination of the class was a gathering at the library, where students presented the sunflower wreaths to the leaders/representatives of the organizations.

The Holdrege Area Public Library held an adult program where the participants created a unique dried flower bookmark that looked like the flowers are encased in an apothecary jar.

The teens used small wooden canvases to paint pint-sized wilderness scenes. These masterpieces were then displayed in the library. In the Teen Science Cafe, they explored the fundamental necessities for black bear survival as they talked virtually with a Ranger from Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore. Then, they created their own life-size black bear track cast to take home!

Gibbon Public Library held programs for all ages. They had 57 sign up for adult summer program this year. Bingo is ALWAYS a hit!

One week Miss Gab was able to source appliance boxes and put together a whole town for the kids to decorate and play in. The local shop teacher even came and helped them "build." Kearney Regional Medical Center came to our outdoor carnival and gave out free helmets to all of the kiddos who came. Over 90 helmets were fitted and given away! We had an evening program featuring our local fire department and SMOKEY THE BEAR! It was so much fun. We had fire trucks, a story time, games, a craft activity, birthday cupcakes and more. There were approximately 75 community members in attendance.

Valentine Public Library partnered with other organizations and had guest speakers/leaders at each session.

Children at the St. Paul Public Library had fun reading to dogs and getting acquainted with visiting animals.

Jaclyn Gomez from the National Weather Service (North Platte Office) gave a presentation to the North Platte Public Library elementary kids about extreme weather safety and the kids made water cycle bracelets.

O'Neill Public Library patrons enjoyed going on Blind Dates with Books.

BLIND DATE with a BOOK!

♥ HOW IT WORKS:

Take a book home without knowing its title. Go ahead...take a chance on love!

- 1 Choose a wrapped book from the shelf. Don't peek!
- 2 Check out the book.
- 3 After you've checked out the book, unwrap it to officially meet your date. Give the book a chance but if things don't work out, simply return it. No hard feelings!
- 4 Fill out your "Wato Your Date" bookmark and return it with your book. We want to hear all the details.

We've had some great programming moments this summer at the Blue Hill Public Library!

We kicked off summer reading with the Fontenelle Forest Raptors. Local resident Mikayla Niederklein shares with summer reading students her experiences as a foreign exchange student in Costa Rica. Joan Wells, trick roper with Humanities Nebraska, helps lasso our summer reading wrap-up. Teresa Young, director of the Webster County Museum, presents an evening of interesting local history.

The Atkinson Public Library was busy with activities this summer!

Monday's were Crafts for Kids Day. They made fun "Up" themed houses, S'more paper crafts, and tippy bugs and bees. In all there were 236 crafters who also worked on activity and coloring pages, and enjoyed treats.

On Tuesday's, Library Director Judy Hagan, along with guest readers who read and entertained the groups with the "Let the Adventure Begin" theme for Story Hour. A total of 179 children and adults attended throughout the month, and enjoyed lots of great books, and action and campfire songs!

Wednesday mornings, the Summer Book Club met to discuss their Titanic book. I Survived the Sinking of the Titanic, 1912 by Lauren Tarshis, was the book for the younger group. The older students read Iceberg by Jennifer A. Nielsen. There were a total of 41 members, which included children and adult helpers.

Movie Days were Wednesday afternoons, where 120 children and adults came and enjoyed popcorn and animated movies during the month.

Faith Memorial Library in Wallace partners with the high school's chapter of the Future Farmers of America. FFA members plan the Summer Reading Program. They read stories and provide instruction for crafts.

Mrs. Dawn at the Beaver City Public Library donned a pirate costume to promote Adventure Begins At The Library and sailing around the world on Mrs. Dawn's Pirate ship.

We had Big Power Day with about 100 in attendance this year on June 28th. The children from Kiddie City Daycare had a great time wearing the play safety vests and hard hats provided by the library. Twin Valleys Public Power District brought a cool bucket truck. They assisted the Kidde City Daycare children onto the supply deck.

Its been really great partnering with the daycare! They have boosted my traffic and programming provided.

We had a great summer at the Arapahoe Public Library!

Our Friends of the Library sponsored the Edgerton Explorit Center who brought their Raptor Program to us.
