Consistently overdue books, videos, or other materials may be cause for suspension of library service. In order to comply with privacy laws, all patrons will be assigned a number. This number must be used when books are checked out.

Borrowed Books, Magazines, and Videos – All borrowed books (including audio books) may be kept two weeks and renewed for two weeks. Videos or DVDs may be checked out for 2 weeks. Current magazines may be checked out for 1 week. Older magazines may be checked out for two weeks. These borrowing times may be modified for individual materials subject to the library director's discretion. Some materials may be labeled "reference only" and are to remain in the library at all times. The library director also reserves the right to limit the number of books, videos or other materials loaned at any given time.

Fines and Fees – The library does not charge late fees. All injuries to books and other materials beyond reasonable use shall be made good to the satisfaction of the library director.

Any photocopy or printing expenses are paid on a donation basis. The borrower will pay the cost of postage to return any material through interlibrary loan.

Lost Items - The Library considers an item lost once it is 30 days overdue and will charge the patron a replacement cost. Once the patron pays the replacement cost or brings in a replacement copy the transaction is complete. If the patron locates the item after this transaction, the Library will not issue a refund and will inform the patron they may keep the item.

Patrons may return the item within 365 days of the due date and the replacement cost will automatically be waived. Items will not be accepted if returned after 365 days from the due date.

The use of the library and/or its services may be denied, temporarily or permanently, for due cause. Such cause may be failure to return books, pay penalties, destruction or any other conduct on library premises deemed objectionable by the library staff.

Patrons have a right of appealing to the Sargent Library Board.

Collection Development – The library will do its best to meet the interests and needs of the community for reading material. Book selection will be based on the following criteria:

- Relevance to interests and needs of the community
- Relevance to the existing collection's strengths and weaknesses
- Suitability of format to Library circulation and use
- Date of publication
- Price, availability and Library materials budget

Customer Recommendations: Customers may request items the Library does not own. Each request is reviewed for inclusion in the collection using the above selection criteria.

The responsibility for book selection rests with the library director and the approval of the board, operating within the framework of board policies.

It is not the library director's responsibility to censor material checked out by the borrower.

Interlibrary Loan

The library accepts responsibility for securing information beyond its own resources by borrowing for patrons materials which are not owned by the Sargent library and which are available through interlibrary loan. Postage for this material will be paid by the patron. Interlibrary loans are limited to no more than 2 items borrowed at one time. The patron accepts responsibility for any damaged or lost books through interlibrary loan. The library director has the right to refuse any requests to unfamiliar patrons or for loans that are not appropriate.

Gifts, Donations, and Memorials –

The library accepts gifts of books and other materials with the understanding that they will be added to the library's collection only when needed and disposed of at the discretion of the library director and the board. Monetary gifts and memorial funds are gratefully accepted and used where most needed. Restricted gifts and bequests will be reviewed by the board before being accepted.

Customer complaints & Book Challenges

In order to protect the freedom of all individuals and groups to read material of their own choosing, it is the responsibility of the library director and the library board to consider all aspects of any challenge to this right. Before any action will be considered, the complainant must file a Request of Withdrawal of Material in writing. The library director and the library board will then take the request under advisement and notify the patron in writing of their decision

Unattended Child Policy:

The Sargent Township Library asks parents to join as partners in ensuring the safety of our young patrons. The library director does not take the place of the parent, act as caregiver, nor assume responsibility for unattended children. Since the library is a public place your children may be at risk. The director is generally busy helping patrons; therefore they are not responsible for supervising children who are using the library. They are often unaware of children's activities, movements and circumstances.

When children are left alone they may become bored or restless and disturb others who are using the library. Parents, guardians, and/or caregivers are responsible for the safety, behavior, and supervision of children at all times in the library and on library property. Children are expected to respect library policies and property. Parents are responsible for the actions of their children in the library whether or not the parent is present. The library director cannot assume liability for children's safety and behavior. Get involved in your children's library use; know what they are reading and viewing and take responsibility for their internet use.
