

DVD Check Out

DVDs may be checked out by patrons who are 17 years old or older for a period of one week. No more than three DVDs may be checked out by a household at one time. They must be checked out on an adult card. They may be renewed for one additional loan period.

A one dollar ($1.00) fine per day will be charged for each day (except Sundays and holidays) the DVD is overdue.

The library will attempt to notify a delinquent borrower after one week. Written notice will be sent after one week.

The patron will be expected to pay the full replacement value if the video is lost or damaged.
