Senior Class History

The Class of 1951 had its humble beginning on a warm September morning in 1938. We youngsters approached a monstrous brick building and wrestled with a heavy door to gain admittance.

Those entering the kindergarten were Marietta Bredthauer, Juanita Everett, Bonnie Bremer, Ethan Weeks, Harlan Sorensen, Mary Lou Vance, Joan Kafka, Joan Schuebel, Barbara Scott, Donald Kinney, La Vonne Gannon, Merna Lange and Patsy Hansen. Six weeks later Berniece Bussell joined us. In October Aura Bea Mitchell died in a fire and the class mourned the loss of our little first grader. Our kindergarten teacher for the first six weeks was Miss Dorothy Allen. Miss Mary Janet Smith taught us the remainder of the year.

In the first grade our teacher was again Miss Mary Janet Smith and our class remained the same except for Joan Schuebel, who moved to Harrisburg.

Our second grade teacher was Miss Neva Belle Bohlke and our class remained the same.

Wayne Vanosdall joined us in the third grade and our teacher was Miss Dora Mae Boyer. Several of our classmates moved this year. La Vonne Gannon and Wayne Vanosdall moved to Grand Island and Joan Kafka moved to Colorado.

In the fourth grade our teacher was Miss Mary Ellen Martin. We were joined by LaVonne Gannon Elvers, and Frank Beedle. Donald Kinney and Barbara Scott moved to Grand Island and Mary Lou Vance moved to North Loup. La Vonne Elvers moved back to Grand Island.

Our fifth grade teacher was Mrs. Kenneth Moore. This year we were joined by Donna Babcock, Dean Walkup and Darrell Newman.

In the sixth grade our teacher was Miss Doris Sautter. Alvin Lybarger and Betty Morrow joined us this year, but Betty moved back to a farm at the end of the year.

Our seventh grade teacher was Miss Doris Sautter and we were joined by Gilbert War-ford and Patty Spilinek during the year.

We again had Miss Sautter for our eighth grade teacher and Margaret Zulkoski, Gene Beck, Darrell Smith and Gene Stanger joined us.

Now having completed our grade school education we looked forward to entering our freshman year of high school.

The first day brought many new faces to our class and as freshmen we numbered 27. Margaret Zulkoski, Bonnie Bremer, Juanita Everett, Lee Nielsen, Ethan Weeks, Mary Moody, Betty Morrow, Gene Beck, Frank Beedle, Milton Christensen, Harlan Sorensen, Darrell Newman, Darlene Gydesen, Donna Babcock, Vivian Vanosdall, Patty Spilinek, Mildred Iverson, Berniece Bussell, Marietta Bredthauer, Delores Ingram, Lumier Hanzel, Alvin Lybarger, Gilbert Warford, Dean Walkup, Charles Kasson, Henry Kasson, and Lorraine Vanosdall were the freshmen. Harlan Sorensen moved to Wolbach, Paul Murphy went to Ord, Alvin Lybarger moved to Arcadia and Darrell Newman dropped during the year.

In the tenth grade Patty Spilinek moved to Burwell, Donna Babcock moved to Gravette, Arkansas, Gilbert Warford dropped and Shirley Morrow joined us.

In the eleventh grade we were joined by Verlon Barnes, Jo Anne Meyer, Nila Yax, Bill Goldfish, Mary Lou Vance, and Dwight Johnson. Charles Kasson left us to join the senior class at mid-year.

In our senior year Shirley Morrow moved to Grand Island and Henry Kasson left us at the semester after completing his senior year.

Of those who started only Marietta Bredthauer, Juanita Everett, Bonnie Bremer, Berniece Bussell and Ethan Weeks are with us now.

On May 17, we seniors proudly marched onto the stage to receive our diplomas. This marked the end of our wonderful school days spent in Scotia Consolidated High School.

Class Will

We, the class of 1951, in 25 individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this realm of education in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament. We hereby revoke and make void all former wills and promises by us at any time heretofore made, or maybe carelessly spoken, one to the other at the thoughtless wish of an idle hour. As we think of all the knowledge we have accumulated in the years past, we feel that we could spare some of our excessive possessions and knowledge.

Verlon Barnes wills half of his model A to make up for the other half of Roger Mueller's car.

Gene Beck wills his red hair to Eleanor Meyer.

Frank Beedle will his tardiness to Leona Clement and Keith Polinoski.

Marietta Bredthauer wills her whispering to Rodney Sperling.

Bonnie Bremer wills her fast talking to Carol Smith.

Berniece Bussell wills her legs to Kay Grohosky.

Milton Christensen wills his long legs to LaVerna Smith.

Juanita Everett wills her knowledge of talking to Gene Stanger.

Bill Goldfish wills his crew cut to Daryl Gydesen.

Darlene Gydesen wills her Modern Problems to Shirley Sautter.

Bud Hanzel wills his ability to follow instructions to Gordon Jensen and Danny Rubenthaler.

Mildred Iversen wills her ability to get a senior to Gayle Portis and Daryl Moravec.

Dwight Johnson wills his ability to rhumba to Doris Jeffres and Shirley Madson.

Henry Kasson wills all his love to Ruby Gydesen.

Jo Anne Meyer wills her ability to keep a man to Levon Yax.

Mary Moody wills her way to get along with teachers to Dale Portis.

Betty Morrow wills her way to get along with in-laws to Keith Cargill.

Lee Nielsen wills his ability in Ag to Tommy Blanchard.

Mary Lou Vance wills her Fish Creek loveliness to Bernard Meyer.

Lorraine Vanosdall wills her singing ability to Stanley Goldfish.

Vivian Vanosdall wills her marriage license to Betty Douthit.

Ethan Weeks wills his curly hair to Clair Del Leth.

Nila Yax wills her height to Burdette Smith.

Margaret Zulkoski will her way to get a diamond from a service man to Fern Miller and Nancy Karre.

Senior Play

"I've made up our minds, Ike and I are getting married."

"ALONG CAME KILROY"

"Along Came Kilroy" was the three-act comedy play given by the senior class on April 30 and May 1.

Ernest Smyth, Lee Nielsen, a fairly successful businessman, and his wife, Hermina, Bonnie Bremer, a society leader, were trying to promote the romance of their daughter, Patricia, Berniece Bussell, and a wealthy pampered young man, Leroy Clymer, Bud Hanzel.

Ernest was trying to buy a brick plant but doesn't have the money. His eccentric, slightly deaf sister, Eunice Shirmer, Jo Anne Meyer, thought he was trying to murder her for her money so she hired Alex Dubbins, Bill Goldfish, a "private eye" to protect her.

"Yukon" Ike Tuttle, Gene Beck, Ernest's uncle, came to visit the family and brought his plane pilot, Jim Harris, Verlon Barnes, with him. "Klondike" Kate Hogan, Mary Lou Vance, whom Ike was supposed to marry, arrived shortly.

Jay J. Kilroy, Frank Beedle, was a representative of the Sparkle-Glo Diamond Ring Company from whom Pat has just won a prize and became slightly confused when Sherry Ballew, Nila Yax, told him several different stories.

Carrie, the maid, Mary Moody, added humor by her outspoken opinions.

Sneak Day

On Friday, May 11 at 4:30 a. m., 25 seniors assembled at the school house, sleepy, but anxious for our sneak day to begin.

We stopped at Shelby for breakfast.

At 8:30 Boy's Town came into view and while here we visited the chapel and other buildings.

In Omaha we visited Joselyn Memorial, World Herald, WOW, Nebraska School for the Deaf, Municipal Airport and many other places of interest.

The rest of the time was spent sight-seeing, shopping, and some went to the movies.

After a wonderful day spent in Omaha we arrived home at midnight tired, but happy.

Senior-Junior Breakfast

The members of the senior and junior classes arose bright and early on the morning of May 18, 1951 to attend the annual Senior-Junior breakfast held at 6:30 a. m. in the school auditorium.

The breakfast consisted of a delicious menu including orange juice, ham, eggs, toast, coffee and milk.

Approximately 66 juniors, seniors and teachers had an enjoyable time.

Junior-Senior Banquet

1950 Junior-Senior Prom

Treasure Island was the theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet of 1951. As the guests entered, they found themselves on a small island amid palm trees and stolen treasures.

The small island centerpieces and colorful ship nut cups made the tables very attractive.

The waiters and waitresses dressed as pirates were Bill Hatcher, Harold Bremer, Bernard Beck, Jerry Bebernes, Sue McIntyre, Phyllis Moravec, Marcia Gebhardt, and Joyce Hosch.

The pirates served the following meal: cocktail, roast chicken with dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, gelatin, salad, rolls, jelly, pickles, ice cream and cake, and coffee.

The welcome was given by the junior president, Patch Eye Stan, and the response by the senior president, Parrot Toting Lou. During the meal the junior class entertained with several musical numbers as well as a speech given by Black Beard, better known as Mr. Frazer.

The remainder of the evening was spent dancing to tropical music. Everyone went home with memories of a night long to be remembered.

The Junior Class presented the play, "There Goes the Bride," Nov. 9, before a filled auditorium.

The setting was the living room in the Curtis home. Phyllis, engaged to be married, suddenly decides to marry the wealthy Tom Elridge, instead of Lewis. Dr. and Mrs. Curtis have busily prepared for the wedding, while Beachy and Billy concentrate on fun rather than help. Billy is constantly pursued by the love sick Sally. Irish love blooms between Anastasin and Officer O'Flynn. Natalie is not happy about Lewis' engagement; she finally wins him. Dinty appears as a typical prize ring type, not really dumb, just stupid. Laughter and suspense have given the audience a most enjoyable evening.

The play was under the supervision of Mrs. Frazer, the dramatics instructor.

KEARNEY SCHOLASTIC CONTEST

The Scotia students came home proud and happy from the Inter-High School Contest at Kearney on Friday, April 6. Scotia tied for first place with Red Cloud and both towns received a mastery trophy. Red Cloud was more fortunate when they won the toss and took the trophy home while Scotia's was sent later.

Nearly all of Scotia's ratings were in the upper half of the class. Those receiving first were Bonnie Bremer in Beginning Shorthand, Blanche Cargill in Extemporaneous Preparation of Well-Known Dishes, and Jerry Bebernes in Elementary Algebra. Eleanor Meyer won second place in Beginning Shorthand.

The tests were given from 9:00 a. m. throughout the afternoon. The students spent their spare time shopping in the Kearney stores or attending a movie.

The special event was celebrated by returning home through Grand Island and eating supper in St. Paul.

PROGRESS OF THE DRAMATICS DEPARTMENT

The Dramatics Department opened up the year with 63 students interested in plays, reading and poetry.

As we turn the reel back to the beginning of the dramatics year, we see the Junior play, "Here Comes the Bride." It was presented to a large crowd who were eagerly awaiting the bride to choose her man.

As we set the reel in focus we see several freshman actors and actresses presenting the play, "George Washington," on the very date of Feb. 22. The play was given as an assembly program and was greatly enjoyed by the students. The next scene on March 15 portrays the dramatics students as they presented their pre-contest program in the school auditorium. From this group, the best contestants were chosen to participate at the Cedar Valley declam contest. Humorous readings were given by Gregory Stillman, Ellen Salter, Rachel Bryan and Rose Mary McNelis. The sophomores, juniors and seniors also presented their plays. Mrs. Martin Dunklau of North Loup acted as critic for the program.

The reel slowly turns forward to the Cedar Valley declam contest where our only freshman contestant, Ellen Salter, won a superior on the humorous reading, "At the Swimming Pool." Ila Dutcher, sophomore, received an excellent. The participants in the play were five senior girls, Berniece Bussell, Mary Moody, Jo Anne Meyer, Bonnie Bremer and Mary Lou Vance.

Again the reel turns and we see a group of young students traveling happily over some of those smooth Nebraska roads. Their destination is none other than the district contest at Shelton. Here Ellen Salter and Ila Dutcher received excellent in their respective divisions; also Jerry Bebernes, who was a contestant in the extemporaneous speaking division, brought home an excellent. The play, "A Nephew in the House," was rated as an excellent.

As the year nears an end, the reel unwinds until the final scene portrays the presentation of the senior play, "Along Came Kilroy," which ends the dramatics activities for another school year.

FAILURES AND TRIUMPHS OF THE VOCAL DEPARTMENT

Again the close of another school term is at hand and we turn the pages on a year of activities, preparation for programs, contests, and clinics.

Mr. Trent's untiring efforts finally succeeded in teaching his proteges the "do re mi fa so la" of vocalistic achievement. With a "do" here and a "re" there, we gradually advanced to the place where we could "do re" together.

Music! Music! Music! As we put a nickel in the Nickelodeon, the record gradually begins to spin and we find the vocal department of the Scotia Schools fervently preparing for the annual Christmas program given on Dec. 21 in the school auditorium. Among the selections presented were numbers by the boys' glee, girls' glee, and mixed chorus.

Looking back upon the second semester, we note that it possessed an even busier music schedule than the first.

Another nickel in the "juke box" starts a second disk spinning which reveals the music of our own Scotia students as heard at the music clinic at Arcadia on March 21. Entries by the vocal department included presentation by soloists and the mixed chorus.

On the reverse side of the "platter" echoes the music from the Wolbach clinic held on April 5. Girls' and boys' glees, the mixed chorus and soloists again presented numbers. Good old Nebraska weather accompanied us at both music clinics!

Leafing through the album, we come upon a record entitled "Pre-Contest Program." This annual event was given on the evening of April 9. All of the individual and group numbers which were selected to represent Scotia at the District VII contest at Albion made up the program. The events of the evening were enjoyed by a large crowd.

On April 13, the soloists sang their solos at the Albion contest and the following day, amid flat tires and windy weather, a delegation of students and teachers finally arrived at Albion. The Scotia school did itself proud by earning the following ratings in the vocal division: Berniece Bussell, girl's high voice, superior; Betty Morrow, girl's high voice, excellent; Lorraine Vanosdall, girl's medium voice, excellent; girls' glee, good; and mixed chorus, excellent.

Much credit is indeed due Director G'enn L. Trent for his able leadership and capable direction of our vocal department. Mr. Trent, we salute you and the music students for the accomplishments you've made in music this year. You've just cause to be proud.

ACTIVITIES OF THE BAND

Again this year, as always, the band was very busy at the beginning of the school year.

On Sept. 6 the band went to St. Paul to perform at the Howard County Fair, then on Sept. 14 the band went to North Loup to participate in the Pop Corn Days parade. These two events were just warm-ups for the Harvest of Harmony at Grand Island on Oct. 14 where we received a rating of good, the same as the year before. On Oct. 21, the band went to Lincoln for Band Day, and lucky enough, we led the huge parade down "O" Street before the start of the Penn State-Nebraska football game.

It was not until Jan. 22 that the band began its torrid pace in preparation for the clinics and contests that are given each year in the spring. On Jan. 22, the band gave a concert in the high school auditorium to raise money for the music department. March 27 was the date for the Loup Valley music clinic at Arcadia. The band practically murdered "Triumphal March" without the help of Bud Hanzel or Eleanor Meyer.

On April 5 soloists and small groups went to Wolbach for the Cedar Valley music clinic. April 13 and 14 were big days for the band department as they went to Albion for the district contest. The band received a rating of excellent. Those who received superiors were: Bud Hanzel, trombone solo; Bill Hatcher, piano; Gayle Portis, clarinet; Eleanor Meyer and Berniece Bussell, saxophone duet; and the saxophone quintet.

OUR THANKS

We have much to thank these people for. The drivers did a lot of hauling us around—to school, contests and games. The cooks made possible the hot lunches, while Jim continues to clean up after all the muddy feet. We truly do appreciate your services.

Queen Mary and Her Court

Queen Mary escorted by the honorary captains, Gene Beck and Gene Wolsleben, receives her crown from last year's queen, Janet Van Skike.

CORONATION OF THE GRID QUEEN

The night was cold and crisp as tension filled the air concerning the identity of the Grid Queen. The excitement grew as the float with pink and white streamers decorating the sides and arch entered from the south gate of the football field. As the royal party arrived a fanfare was played by the Scotia Band. Mary Moody was indeed a happy girl when Mr. Frazer announced over the loud speaker that she had been chosen Grid Queen of 1950.

Each attendant was escorted to the grandstand by a football boy. The freshmen attendants and escorts were Marcia Spencer, Gregory Stillman, Rachel Bryan, and Darrell Vance; sophomores, Phyllis Moravec, Simon Walkowiak, Ila Mae Dutcher, and Jerry Bebernes; juniors, Gayle Portis, Milton Christensen, Mary Kay Grohosky, and Ethan Weeks; and seniors, Betty Morrow, Hank Kasson, Berniece Bussell, and Frank Beedle. Kindergarten attendants were Ramona Rubenthaler and Stephen McDowell.

Last but not least the stately queen advanced with honorary captains, Gene Beck and the Sargent captain, Gene Wolsleben, to the grandstand where the queen was crowned by last year's queen, Janet Van Skike. They then ascended the grandstand which was decorated with a white aisle and aqua, pink, yellow, and lavender seats. The queen was presented with pearls and the two senior attendants received jewel pins. The honorary captain was presented with a sweater as a gift from the Pep Club. He then descended from the grandstand for the second half of the football game, while the girls posed for pictures.

FOOTBALL IN REVIEW

An inexperienced Tiger team, playing without the services of Milt Christensen and Dale Portis, settled for a 12-12 tie in the season's opener at Greeley Friday afternoon, Sept. 15.

Fullerton came to Scotia on the night of Sept. 22 and defeated the Tigers 13-12 in a thriller that pleased a large crowd. Scotia was an entirely different team than the one which was tied by a weak Greeley eleven the week before. Fullerton outweighed the Tigers 30 pounds per man.

In the first conference tilt of the year, the Tigers trounced a fighting Comstock team 27-7. Playing before a home crowd, the Beedle to Beck passing combination looked very good as Beck caught several spectacular passes.

On Oct. 6 an overconfident Scotia team found the going rough at St. Paul. Early in the game St. Paul scored first on a pass. The Tigers came to life in the second quarter, scoring two touchdowns. On the part of Scotia the game was poorly played. Kasson and Smith were out because of injuries. Beck and Weeks were the standouts in an otherwise dull night.

On Friday, Oct. 13, the Tiger team played two games—a good one for the first half, the score being 13-13, but the Scotians played terribly the last half as the Red Raiders from Loup City racked up 34 points to win 47-13. Beck and Portis scored the Tiger touchdowns.

Oct. 20 was a big day for the Tigers because they went to Stromsburg to play a game, then stayed over night with various Stromsburg players so that they could go on to Lincoln to see the Penn State-Nebraska game the next day. The Stromsburg-Scotia game was not so wonderful as the Tigers were defeated 14-7 after leading 7-0 at the half. Moravec was the standout for Scotia.

Scotia went to Arcadia Oct. 25 and defeated the Huskies 32-12. Portis and Beck kept Arcadia on the run, both having one of their better nights.

Tiger Homecoming was on Nov. 3 when we entertained Sargent with a 27-0 win. Beedle put on his best performance of the year and Portis made a magnificent run for a touchdown.

On Nov. 10 the Tigers were defeated at Taylor 48-14, but were consoled by the fact that they had scored more points against Taylor than had all their other opponents combined.

The season ended with four won, four lost and one tied. The Tigers placed second in the conference.

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS

Basketball got off to a slow start as the Tigers lost three games in a row before we defeated Comstock 36-33. And again after Christmas vacation the Tigers had a five-game losing streak before we upset Palmer 36-35.

But all in all the Tigers had a fairly good season with a won 11, lost 14 record, but several of the games in which we lost we were beaten by less than four points.

Gene Beck led the Tigers offensively with 423 points with a 16.9 average per game, followed by Frank Beedle with 254 points and a 10.6 average. The Tigers were outscored by their opponents 1,113 to 1,067.

The Tigers did much better in the tournaments as we won 6 out of 10 games and we won two third-place trophies. We finished fourth in the Cedar Valley tournament at Bartlett, third at Sargent in the Loup Valley, and third in the District at Bartlett. Most of the games were very close in the tournaments, for example, we defeated Belgrade 39-37 and 58-56 and we were defeated by Taylor, a team who went to the state tournament, 40-39, and again 56-50 in an overtime after we were in the lead by 10 points with three minutes remaining.

Student Council Parties

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

The student council sponsored two successful school parties which were held in the school gymnasium.

The first party was held Oct. 23. The phonograph furnished the music for the dancing, and several games were played, which added to everyone's enjoyment. The broom dance was the favorite of them all. The student council served an appetizing lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and Kool Aid.

On Feb. 13, another great event was held for the high school students. Mr. and Mrs. McDowell furnished records and they also chaperoned the party. The girls had their chance to pick their partners several times during the evening. Dance games were played so that everyone got a different partner for each dance. Hot dogs, potato chips, cake and Kool Aid were served. Several dances later the party was completed.

ACTIVITIES OF THE LITTLE TIGERS

The Scotia Junior High traveled to Comstock where they lost a heartbreaker 13-12. The score at the end of the first half was 7-6 in favor of Comstock.

Comstock came to Scotia to find themselves up against a team they hadn't looked forward to. The score at the end of the first half was 7-0 Scotia. The score at the end of the game was 7-7.

In the future we hope they will be one of the best teams in the state. Darrel Vance and Gregory Stillman will obviously be two of the conferences best players, and with the rest of the team backing them are sure to be a success. There are also many good players in the eighth grade.
