1952

Dedication

This 1952 yearbook is dedicated to all of those individuals who have in the past or are now making personal sacrifices and contributions to the educational system of which they may be justly proud. The records of the school's graduates are such that they justify the efforts expended in behalf of education.

Our Superintendent

We pay special tribute to our superintendent, Mr. Frazer, who has efficiently directed our school for the past three years. He takes an interest in each pupil and strives to guide us in the right paths.

School Board Members

We also pay tribute to these members who are the governing body of our school. Left to right: Ed Stillman, Laverne Jess, Elton Jess-Secretary, M. G. Williams-Treasurer, Roy Bremer, and Leo Klein-President.

Our Faculty at Work

Mrs. Lucile Millington, Commercial instructor, quizzing her Office Practice girls.

Mrs. Gladys Meyer reading to her 1st and 2nd graders.

Don Keebaugh, our coach, who teaches Modern Problems, American History, and World Geography, is in conference with our superintendent.

Ivan Ward, Principal, Science and Math instructor, points out a problem to one of the freshmen.

Miss Doris Sautter leads the discussion for her 7th and 8th grade students.

Glenn Trent, Music instructor, giving a saxophone lesson.

Our Faculty at Work

Mrs. Catherine Bergthold, Home Economics teacher, planning the day's work.

Rolland Essman working a problem for one of his Agricultural classes.

Mrs. Theda Frazer, English and Dramatics teacher, explains the Literature lesson.

Miss Viola Clement, 3rd and 4th grade instructor, is teaching Social Science to her students.

Mrs. Wanda Essman, 5th and 6th grade teacher, previewing a health lesson.

Mrs. Helen Krebs with two of her Kindergarten pupils.

Class History

The class of 1952 began its education on a bright September morning in 1939. We youngsters approached the tall flight of stairs, some of us gripping tightly to our mothers' hands.

Those entering the kindergarten were Bernard Beck, Connie Bell Drake, Bernard Dunkelberger, Merlyn Halm, Barbara Hatch, Nancy Karre, John Layher, Walter Madison, Eleanor Meyer, Eugene Morrow, Keith Polinoski, Dale and Gayle Portis, Shirley Sautter, Donald Tuma, Simon Walkowiak and Loretta Yost. Chester Sautter, Kathryn Brood, and Anita Marie Kenseh entered at the beginning of the year, but dropped later in the year. Our teacher was Mary Janet Smith.

In the first grade our teacher was again Mary Janet Smith. Doris Johnson, Patsy Hansen, and William Gray came in at the beginning of the year, but dropped in April and Connie Bell Drake also left us.

We had three new members in our second grade. They were Elaine Jacobsen, Kenneth Barth, and Mary Jane Carr. Two of our members left us. They were Eugene Morrow and Walter Madison. Our teacher was Miss Dora Mae Boyer.

We began our third year with the same teacher and one new member, Mary Kaye Grohosky. We lost Kenneth Barth, Bernard Beck, John Layher, and Simon Walkowiak.

Our teacher in the fourth grade was Mrs. Kenneth Moore. We had no new members until December when Leona Clement joined us.

In the fifth grade we started with a new teacher, Miss Viola Clement, and one new member, Fern Miller.

We entered the sixth grade with Miss Doris Sautter as our teacher. The only two new members were Darrauld Miller and Carole Lane.

Our seventh grade was again taught by Miss Doris Sautter. Doris Jeffres joined us during the year, and Carole Lane and Donald Tuma moved away.

We again had Miss Doris Sautter as our teacher in the eighth grade. We were joined by Gene Stanger, and Mary Jane Carr left us.

Now having completed our grade school education, we looked forward, but shyly, to our freshman year in high school.

The new faces were Tommy Blanchard, Keith Cargill, Betty Douthit, Joann Fischer, Rowena Freeland, Ruby Gydesen, Claire Del Leth, Shirley Madsen, Daryl Moravec, Burdette and Carol Smith and Dale Thompson. We were later joined by Danny Rubenthaler. Rowena Freeland dropped before completing the ninth grade.

In the tenth grade we were joined by Mary Jane Carr, Stanley Goldfish, Roger Mueller and Rodney Sperling. Moving away were Barbara Hatch, Joann Fischer and Mary Jane Carr.

In the eleventh grade we were joined by Bernard Meyer, Darrell Gydesen, Levon Yax, Donna Bell, and Erma and Laverna Smith. Donna Bell and Merlyn Halm dropped during the year.

We began our Senior year with the absence of Stanley Goldfish. Gene Stanger dropped the second semester, which leaves our class with twenty-eight members.

Of those who started only Nancy Karre, Eleanor Meyer, Keith Polinoski, Dale and Gayle Portis and Shirley Sautter are with us now.

On May 15, we happy Seniors stepped onto the stage to receive our diplomas. This marked the end of our wonderful school days spent in Scotia Consolidated Schools.

Class Will

We, the Senior class of 1952, in the town of Scotia, the county of Greeley, and the state of Nebraska, solemnly declare this document to be the last will and testament of our class.

To the Freshmen, we leave our sincere desire to see them climb the ladder and take each step cautiously as we have done.

To the Sophomores, we will our discipline and our ability to get along with the teachers.

To the Juniors, we will our individual personal belongings:

Ruby Gydesen wills her knowledge of the farm to Virgil Byerly.

Dale Portis wills his brain to Jerry Bebernes and hopes that it will hit on all eight cylinders.

Gordon Jensen, Keith Polinoski and Roger Mueller will their ability to get along with Ord girls to Simon Walkowiak.

Burdette Smith wills his study hall seat to anyone who thinks he can bear to sit in it a whole term.

Nancy Karre wills her technique to get an Irish friend to Verneda Douthit.

Eleanor Meyer wills her saxophone technique to James Anderson.

Shirley Sautter wills her ability to get a North Loup serviceman to Joyce Hosch.

Daryl Moravec wills his brotherly love to his kid sister, Phyllis Moravec.

Keith Cargill wills his ability to get along with patrolmen to Bernard Beck.

Rodney "Nighthawk" Sperling wills his collection of girl friends to Wendell Ita.

Danny Rubenthaler wills his class ring to Marcia Gebhardt.

Doris Jeffres wills her quiet ways to Carol Peterson.

Betty Douthit will not will anything because she has already said "I will" to someone else.

Gayle Portis wills her soft job as editor of the Scotia Tiger to Blanche Cargill who wants an easy job. Oh yeah!

Tommy Blanchard doesn't have anything to will, but he sure wishes someone would will him some gas.

Laverna and Erma Smith will their test papers in Modern Problems to Diane Ingram.

Leona Clement wills her style of fox-trotting and rumbaing to Bill Hatcher.

Bernard Meyer wills his "tall stories" to Harold Bremer.

Shirley Madsen wills the knowledge she didn't know she had to Charlene Gress.

Darrell Gydesen wills his flirting ability to Iris Wagner.

Carol Smith wills her long hair to Ila Dutcher whose main trouble is getting her hair to grow out of a crew cut.

Fern Miller wills her love for Pontiacs to Darlene Johnson who loves Plymouths.

Levon Yax and Claire Del Leth will their friendship to none of the Junior class because they want to keep it themselves.

Mary Kay Grohosky wills her gum-chewing ability to Keith Malottke, hoping he doesn't get caught.

Prophecy

This is the year 1962. In the great city of Washington we find magnitudes of people battling their way into the famous Library of Congress.

What's the big rush, someone inquires? Why, everybody's after that best seller "The Scotia Seniors of '52," written by their class sponsor, Glenn Trent. He has spent the last ten years, not composing a symphony, but writing the life history of these brilliant students.

As we skim through the book, we first come upon our Senior class president, Keith Polinoski. Keith's chief ambition was always to be a chemistry teacher. Well! He finally made it. He works right along side Einstein—sweeping his floor, that is.

Keith and Roger never seemed to get separated. Roger Mueller lives in the same city and has become just as prominent in the world with his Mueller's dog food factory. He always loved dogs as a youngster.

Now, we come back to Nebraska and find that Ruby Gydesen moved to the Sand Hills after high school. She was crowned Hay Queen recently for stacking the neatest and biggest stack of hay.

Shirley Madsen is now owner of a large ranch which raises the famous wingless chickens.

The outstanding Star Farmer, Rodney Sperling, has taught his pigs to smoke corn cob pipes, and was the first person in history to put fresh smoked ham on the market.

The former Betty Douthit and her family are now living in Horace. Because of the tremendous increase in population Horace now has a place on Nebraska's map.

Burdette Smith has made a great success as a dairy farmer and introduced into the market the Smith's powdered milk.

Eleanor Meyer became head nurse at St. Francis hospital and teaches a special class in "How to Revive From Fainting."

Nancy Karre has a fine position as assistant nurse working with her cousin, Dr. Karre, in the Ord animal hospital.

In the next chapter, we find that many of our Seniors have moved to New York. Mr. Trent wrote of his experience of seeing Dan Rubenthaler, the Golden Glove's boy, staggering down the street still punch drunk from the night before in Madison Square Garden.

He also mentioned that Claire Del Leth had reached her fame in Carnegie Hall. She's on every Saturday night from 5:30 to 12:30 scrubbing floors.

Tom Blanchard told Mr. Trent about his flea circus in New York. He said it was on the verge of bankruptcy for it was gradually going to the dogs.

While touring the Bowery Mr. Trent said he saw a queer, but familiar-looking man driving a hearse. It was none other than Keith Cargill. How surprising, he said! But there is one consolation; he isn't bothered with a back seat driver. This immodern like hearse has no radio, but his assistant, Daryl Moravec, makes up for one. He only knows one song, but that's better than nothing.

It seems as every one of the Seniors have made a name for themselves since graduation. Dale Portis is making a great success as head coach in Oberlin College for girls. Dale seems to enjoy his work even more since a promising full-back has joined his team. It is none other than Doris Jeffres.

Everyone always knew this remarkable class would do wonders. Levon Yax proved success does not come in only one way. Levon has made a great fortune counting Boston Beans.

But where is the girl who was vice-president of our class? Mr. Trent said he found Leona Clement. That was enough!

Two of our Seniors have made themselves very prosperous in the manufacturing business. The "Smith Sisters," Erma and Laverna, have joined the "Smith Brothers" in the manufacturing of lemon-flavored cough drops.

Two other Seniors have not fared so well in the same profession. Darrell Gydesen's and Bernard Meyer's business is failing. The animal crackers they manufactured were getting the hoof and mouth disease.

The remainder of our class is scattered throughout the world. Mr. Trent remarked that Gordon Jensen has been a success as an auctioneer selling women's lingerie in the noted "Angel Form" department store in Paris.

While visiting the cemeteries of the globe, Mr. Trent found that everything was still and quite dead, especially in this particular one. Oh yes, he saw one moving figure. It was Mary Kay Grohosky following in the footsteps of Florence Nightengale.

Gayle Portis has seen a lot of the world since graduation. She travels as the sixteenth chair clarinetist with Spike Jones and his City Slickers.

While on the boat which took Mr. Trent to Alaska, he met two more of our Seniors. Carol Smith and Fern Miller are ship stewardesses on the Ocean Cattle Liner. They make so many new friends.

On arriving in Alaska, Mr. Trent hurried to the "Polar Brr!" club where he found Shirley Sautter modeling one-piece bathing suits.

In the last chapter, the author said he had so enjoyed writing this book that he was giving up his music career entirely and planned to write twenty-eight books—a whole book devoted to each member of the Senior class of '52.

Senior Class Play

Much excitement was to be found in the school auditorium on the nights of February 14 and 15 when the Senior class presented the play "COMIN' ROUND THE MOUNTAIN" under the direction of Theda Frazer.

The weird characters in their hillbilly costumes, the old cook stove which was constantly blowing up, the cupboard door always crashing to the floor, the rocking chair with the collapsible seat, the bench which had to be sat on just right to avoid falling off, the firing of the shot gun, the cider lid popping off, and Paw's stream of tobacco hitting the pail with a "ping" were just a few of the things that kept the audience in a constant uproar.

Maw-Leona Clement, and Paw Skitter-Keith Polinoski, decides that their daughter, Corney Bell-Fern Miller, is to marry a bachelor neighbor, Sammy Fester-Darrell Gydesen, and he is going to give them a beautiful "hawg" named Pansy Sue. Corney Bell has made up her mind to marry an outsider by the name of Robert Bruce-Danny Rubenthaler. The Skitters decide to "git" him and his friend Edward Small-Tom Blanchard, for their two daughters, Corney Bell and Dizzie Mae-Gayle Portis. Curly-Gordon Jensen, who is the oldest son, has fallen in love with Miz Dollar-Ninety Eight's pictures in the Rears'n Sawbuck "cattylog." Zeke-Keith Cargill, is quite the brat and drives nails in the "tars" of the city fellers' "keer" so that they will have to stay and court the gals. Ellie Lou-Kay Grohosky, a neighbor girl, is after Curly. She thinks if she peroxides her hair that she will be as glamorous as Carol Hughes-Ruby Gydesen. Doris Dean-Nancy Karre, Carol's girl friend, comes with Carol to aid the city fellows in their escape. Everything turns out all right when Robert Bruce decides he really wants to marry Corney Bell and Dizzy Mae has changed her mind because of Timothy, her imaginary "bar."

The play ends when Curly's hillbilly band composed of Shirley Sautter, Laverna Smith, Rodney Sperling, Bernard Meyer, Eleanor Meyer, Carol Smith, Betty Douthit, Levon Yax, and Claire Del Leth enter to play for the square dance in celebration of the wedding.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Junior-Senior Banquet of '51

On May 2, the faculty, seniors and juniors were all to be found in an old-fashioned garden one "Starlight Evening" wishing at the wishing well or gazing at the moon and stars.

The ceiling became a summer's mid-night sky by covering it solid with sky-crepe paper sprinkled with variegated sizes of silver stars. A full moon and burning candles furnished the light. Paper lanterns were hung at various places. Stonewall crepe paper, behind which peeked flowers, covered the lower part of the walls adding to the natural setting of an outdoor scene.

Long tables added effectiveness to the theme. The full length of each table had in the center a crepe runner of dark blue with a white crepe runner over it. On this runner were the centerpieces—five-pointed silver metallic stars mounted on a white scalloped edge round base. A black graduate cap adorned the center of the star. The nut cups were small blue wagons with silver wheels and silver trim on the wagons. The tongue of the wagon held a silver star and the center of the star was decorated with a black graduation cap. The napkins and place cards carried out the "star" theme. Individual white lace plate mats placed over blue paper were used.

The Little Dipper, Bill Hatcher, junior class president, welcomed the guests and the response was given by the Big Dipper, Keith Polinoski, president of the senior class. Several moonlight melodies, "Star Dust" and "Moonlight and Roses," were sung by the Moonshiners. The Man in the Moon, Mr. Frazer, delighted the guests with his usual speech. Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star, Darlene Johnson, played a clarinet solo, "Tales of Vienna Woods." The program closed with a lesson in star gazing by Ila Dutcher, the Evening Star.

The menu, served by the junior mothers, consisted of tomato juice cocktail, scalloped chicken, mashed potatoes, creamed peas, relish, salad, rolls, butter, ice cream and angel food cake. The waitresses were Rachel Bryan, Marcia Spencer, Ellen Salter, and Rose Mary McNelis. The waiters were Gregory Stillman, Jack Tuma, Darrel Vance, and Bob Holt.

The perfect ending to an evening never to be forgotten by anyone present was, of course, the dancing to music furnished by a phonograph.

Junior Class Play

The Juniors presented their class play, "HENPECKED HENRY," to a record-breaking crowd in the school auditorium on November 15.

The setting was the living room of the Henry Hyde home where Erilla completely rules the roost. When Ace and Henry decide to go fishing they tell Erilla and Edna they are going to attend a convention. But, they land in jail! When Henry returns home Erilla is very suspicious of what might have happened, accuses Henry of having some girl friends, and insists on taking the whole family back to Placerville. But her glasses are misplaced, and they have to come home only to find their house occupied by a movie star and her two sisters who insist the house belongs to their uncle. Ellen is determined to marry Kurt, and William is determined to collect some money from Erilla. All of this along with Lottie "forgetting to remember" made a hilarious three-act comedy.

The play was directed by the dramatics teacher, Mrs. Frazer. The cast of characters included: Henry Hyde-Bill Hatcher, Erilla Hyde-Marcia Gebhardt, Ellen Hyde-Carol Peterson, Lottie Hartigan-Verneda Douthit, Ace Bliss-Jerry Bebernes, Mrs. Ace Bliss-Blanche Cargill, Eda Rogers-Joyce Hosch, Gladys Rogers-Ila Dutcher, Pauline Rogers-Diane Ingram, Kurt Little-Virgil Byerly, and William Cripps-Harold Bremer.

Sophomore Class

Cheerleaders

Betty Douthit

Ruby Gydesen

Verneda Douthit

These three girls were chosen by the Pep Club members to be their cheerleaders for the 1951-52 school year.

Pep Rallies

Joan Dishaw announces the radio singers, Keith Polinoski and Mr. Ward.

Mr. Ward, acting as Frank Sinatra, got plenty of swoons from the girls, but Arley Boesen was the winner of the contest.

Pep Club

Second Row—Diane Ingram, Marilyn Parker, Elsie Morrow, Jo Ann Simpson, Lois Fillinger, Hazel Pearson, Mrs. Bergthold.

Cheerleaders—Betty Douthit, Ruby Gydesen, Verneda Douthit.

The Tigerettes attended every home football and basketball game and all games that a bus was taken to this season.

After the Taylor football game, a chili feed was enjoyed by the Taylor and Scotia football players, the Scotia faculty and the Pep Club.

The Pep Club presented a simple but effective drill in the gym at the Sargent basketball game.

As a result of a peppy and vigorous campaign with posters and urging on the part of the Pep Club, four new members were gained. Among the four, three were boys.

The Pep Club gave a witty and humorous pep rally before each of the home games.

Ten girls from the Pep Club helped to make the athletic banquet, given for the football players, a success by serving as waitresses.

The Pep Club also sponsored an all-school party in the spring, at which everyone had lots of fun and laughs.

FHA

Back Row—Norma Sautter, Janice Keep, Joan Dishaw, Ila Mae Miller, Bernice Vance, Claire Del Leth, Lauradel Sautter, Jo Ann Simpson, Dorine Johnson, Ellen Blanchard, Mrs. Bergthold.

Second Row—Lois Morrow, Rosemary McNelis, Eleanor Vanosdall, Shirley Madsen, Eleanor Meyer, Nancy Karre-President, Diane Ingram, Marcia Spencer, Ellen Salter, Rachel Bryan.

The third Wednesday, sixth period, of every month was designated as the period for the FHA meetings. The first meeting, in September, was spent planning the District FHA Convention. New officers were installed at a candlelighting service in October. The meeting in November was entitled a Slave Party at which each member made her own yearbook. On November 20 an FFA and FHA Thanksgiving dinner was held. The FHA girls went Christmas caroling on the night of December 18. At the December meeting they had a Christmas party. The January meeting consisted of a skit by some of the girls demonstrating Parliamentary Procedure. The girls drew names for Heart Sisters for Valentine's Day. They also had some laughs during the roll call, which was "My Most Embarrassing Moment." At the February meeting, a film on Home Safety was shown, and the roll was to guess each one's Heart Sister. The March meeting marked the date of electing officers for next year's FHA Club. At the April meeting the girls entertained the freshmen girls and introduced them into FHA. In May a report of the State Convention was given and the roll call was "Why I'm Glad School Is Out." The girls are looking forward to "Officer's Workshop" in June.

FFA

Learning to Do
Doing to Learn
Earning to Live
Living to Serve

That is the worthwhile motto of the organization known as the Future Farmers of America. This organization is dedicated to the improvement of rural living and agriculture.

This year marks the beginning of an increase in the activities and influence of the agriculture department.

To begin the year we sponsored a parent-son night, which was designed to bring the parents into contact with the agriculture department. That evening Gregory Stillman, Bob Holt and Duane Gydesen were announced as the winners of our chapter gilts.

In March our chapter held an FFA parent-son banquet. Two men, Leo Klein and Jim Bryson, were named as honorary members. It was attended by 108 people.

However, our greatest accomplishments came during the FFA contests at Lincoln April 3 and 4. It was here that Rodney Sperling was announced as one of the State Farmers in Nebraska. This is an honor that goes only to the top two percent of the FFA membership.

Also, our livestock judging team composed of Keith Cargill, Rodney Sperling and Daryl Moravec, placed second in competition with 99 teams. They missed going to the national contest by one point. Daryl Moravec, as an individual, placed third in a group of 297 boys. Altogether, we came back with eleven ribbons from the state contests.

We closed the year's activities with our annual FFA-FHA picnic.

The Dramatics department opened its busy schedule on November 15 with the Junior play, "Henpecked Henry." On February 14 and 15 we find the Seniors presenting the comedy, "Comin' Round the Mountain." Both classes felt rewarded after their presentations as they were considered two of the best comedies in some years.

After the class plays, each class began working on readings and one-act plays.

On March 21 a group of students with readings made the trip to Shelton to take part in the declamatory contest. Ila Dutcher received a rating of excellent in poetry reading. Nancy Karre, with an interpretative oration, Rosemary McNelis, with a dramatic reading, and Leona Clement, with a humorous reading, all received ratings of good. A long week end was spent by this group and Mrs. Frazer as they were snow-bound in Grand Island from Friday until Sunday.

On April 9 these same students and a one-act play cast composed of Ellen Salter, Carroll Lenz, Marcia Gebhardt and Gayle Portis entered the declamatory contest at Arcadia. At this contest Leona Clement was rated a superior with a humorous reading. Ila Dutcher was again awarded an excellent in poetry reading. Nancy Karre, Rosemary McNelis and the one-act play received ratings of good.

The Freshman Dramatics class presented two plays on April 10 as a school assembly program. Two Sophomores, Marcia Spencer and Rachel Bryan, and a Senior, Leona Clement, also gave readings.

On April 29 another assembly program was held which took in the rest of the Dramatics students who had not performed previously.

The Tigers opened the 1951 season with an easy 51-0 win over hapless Sacred Heart of Greeley. The Tigers really looked good against the Irish, scoring almost at will and outdowning their opponents 14-3. Captain Dale Portis and Dan Rubenthaler led the scoring avalanche of eight touchdowns.

Scotia went to Litchfield for its only afternoon game of the season on September 21. Litchfield, led by a junior halfback, Dean Roelle, proved to be an even match for the Tigers. Twice we had to come from behind to tie the score. The game was hampered by many penalties, mostly offside penalties.

The Tigers went to Comstock on September 28 and absorbed a 12-0 defeat. Portis did not see action because of a leg injury, and coach, to make matters even worse, was at home with an infected tooth. The first half ended with the Tigers on the Pirates' eight-yard line, but that was all the closer we could get.

Friday, October 5, found the St. Paul Wildcats at Scotia. Tiger miscues gave the Wildcats two first-quarter TD's. The final score was 27-0 with Scotia on the wrong side. The Tigers outdowned the Wildcats 12 to 6 and completed seven out of fifteen passes.

The Tigers went to Loup City on October 12 to absorb a 33-6 set-back at the hands of the Red Raiders. Portis highlighted the game for Scotia with a beautiful 85-yard run in the third quarter.

On October 19, Stromsburg invaded Scotia and carried home a 32 to 19 conquest. In the first half it was all Stromsburg, but Scotia came to life in the third quarter, playing alert ball, and scored 19 points to show their opponents that the Tigers could fight. But we spotted Stromsburg 13 points too many in the first half.

Football

The victory-starved Tigers broke a four-game losing streak by capitalizing on Arcadia's many mistakes and turning them into a 44 to 19 victory. The Tigers scored three TD's in a little over a minute and a half in the opening minutes of the third quarter.

In the best game of the year the Tigers upset the highly touted Sargent Bulldogs at Sargent on November 2. In 16-degree weather, Scotia played a team that outweighed them 28 pounds per man; but the Tigers won 14-12, coming from behind twice. Portis was outstanding, scoring 13 of our 14 points. The play of the Scotia line, led by Layher, Vance, and Moravec, was the best of the season.

The Tigers took on the Taylor team at the Scotia field before the season's largest crowd. It decided who was to share the top laurels with Comstock in the Loup Valley Conference. Scotia won 14-6 in a hard-fought game with Portis, the Tiger captain, leading the way as he did in all the games. It gave the Tigers their first Loup Valley title.

Our "hats off" to Coach Don Keebaugh and these seven Senior lettermen who have the honor of being members of the first Scotia football squad to receive the Loup Valley title.

Captain Dale Portis has been a four-year letterman of the football team. His position was left halfback.

Dan Rubenthaler was our team's right halfback. He played on the squad three years.

Keith Cargill was a four-year member of the team with the position of fullback.

Burdette Smith, a three-year member of the team, played tackle.

Gordon Jensen has been a four-year member of the team, his position being center.

Daryl Moravec, another four-year member of the team, played tackle.

Keith Polinoski, a two-year member of the squad, played end for the team.

Mr. Keebaugh is to be congratulated for being the instructor of such a successful football team. We hope that next year's football season will be just as successful.

Basketball

In basketball the Tigers made a dismal showing this year, failing to win a game. They just couldn't win, and at times it seemed that lady luck was against them. But they had their moments, giving Primrose, Wolbach, Litchfield and Taylor scares before falling behind in the later stages of the games.

Against Taylor at Ravenna in the district tournament, the Tigers gave their best performance. The game was a see-saw affair for three quarters. Then Taylor pulled ahead in the last period and stayed there. The final score was 39-34.

Keith Polinoski, honorary captain, was selected to the Loup Valley All-Conference team.

Eleven men were awarded letters. They are: Jerry Bebernes, Keith Polinoski, Dan Rubenthaler, Gordon Jensen, Bill Hatcher, Simon Walkowiak, Bernard Beck, Gregory Stillman, John Beilke, Darrel Vance, and Fred Karre. Keith Polinoski, Gordon Jensen, and Dan Rubenthaler will be lost through graduation, but with eight returning lettermen next year's outlook is much better.

1952 Track

Over forty boys reported to Coach Don Keebaugh at the start of the 1952 track season to begin the tedious and arduous work of conditioning. There were four returning lettermen. They were Garold Boilesen, Greg Stillman, Dan Rubenthaler and Dale Portis.

The Tigers' first meet was on March 31. We went to Burwell for a triangular meet with North Loup and the host school, Burwell. The final score was Burwell 71 5/7, Scotia 54 6/7, and North Loup 21 3/7. Tigers who placed first in their events and their times are: Greg Stillman, 220-yard dash, 26.4; Keith Cargill, 880-yard run, 2:25.2; Fred Karre, mile, 5:19.3; Dale Portis, high hurdles, 9.3; Dan Rubenthaler, low hurdles, 12.5; and the 880-yard relay team.

On April 10 the Tigers journeyed to Ord for the Ord Invitational to compete with schools of all sizes. Scotia did not do very well scoring only one point, that being by Dale Portis who placed fifth in the low hurdles. Broken Bow won the 25-team meet with 45 points. Grand Island followed with 44½ points.

The Tigers went to Comstock on April 23 for a triangular with Comstock and Arcadia. Scotia placed first with 69 points to win a trophy, followed by Comstock with 40 and Arcadia with 34. Those boys who placed first in their events are: Portis, 100; Stillman, 220; Walkowiak, 880; Karre, mile; Rubenthaler, high hurdles, low hurdles; Moravec, high jump and broad jump; and the 880 relay team. Ribbons were awarded to the top four in each event. Moravec was the high point man of the meet.

The Loup Valley Conference track meet was held on April 25 at Ord. Scotia was nudged out of first place by Sargent. Sargent had a total of 83½ points; Scotia, 77; Taylor, 38½; Comstock, 36; Arcadia, 21½; North Loup, 4½; and Litchfield, 2½. Those who placed first for Scotia are: Stillman, 220, 25.3; Portis, low hurdles, 23.3; Bebernes, discus, 109' 7"; 880 relay team composed of Portis, Moravec, Stillman, and Rubenthaler; and the mile relay team composed of Walkowiak, Cargill, Jensen and Gydesen.

S Club

Second Row—Darrel Vance, Bernard Beck, Jack Tuma, Monty Kyhn, Simon Walkowiak, Fred Karre, Bill Hatcher, Bob Holt.

The S Club is the honor society for all major lettermen of Scotia High. It was organized this year by Coach Don Keebaugh for all letter winners in football, basketball and track.

It is an unforgettable occasion when an athlete receives his first letter. It is a symbol of achievement, and it shows that an athlete has come through the requirements and trials of many games or strenuous meets in track to earn his award. In order to win one of these symbols of sportsmanship and talent, a hopeful has to play in one fourth of the total number of quarters in football or basketball; and in track he must place first in a dual or triangular meet; first or second place in a track meet of four or five teams; first, second or third in a six-team track meet; or any placing in a track meet of more than six teams.

The purpose of this club is: to promote the financing of all necessary awards to be given to the lettermen; to secure money for the athletic fund; to furnish entertainment for its members and the public; to create good will; to give special recognition to championship teams; and to promote the betterment of school spirit and sportsmanship.

Grid Queen of '51

Mary Kay Grohosky was chosen by the football squad to be their Grid Queen for 1951. The ceremony was filled with the traditional splendor as the identity of the queen was not revealed until her arrival on the field. After the announcement, Queen Mary Kay received her crown from the football captain, Dale Portis.

The Captain presented the Queen a necklace and earring set and the two Senior attendants necklaces—gifts from the team. In behalf of the Pep Club, Queen Mary Kay presented Dale with a sweater.

As the school band played, Dale escorted Queen Mary Kay to her throne in the grand stand. They were followed by the two Kindergarten attendants, Lynn Keebaugh and Gary Frazer. Ruby Gydesen and Gayle Portis, the Senior attendants, were escorted by Dan Rubenthaler and Daryl Moravec. The Junior attendants were Marcia Gebhardt and Carol Peterson; their escorts were Keith Polinoski and Keith Cargill. The Sophomore attendants were Ellen Salter and Jo Ann Simpson, who were escorted by Gordon Jensen and Burdette Smith. Jerry Bebernes and Bernard Beck escorted the Freshman attendants, Joyce Halm and Janice Wagner.

Vocal Groups and Solos

The Chorus made a great showing during the 1951-52 school year.

Its first performance was a Christmas program given on December 18. The program consisted of Biblical scenes, readings, vocal solo parts, and choral music. The music was taken from a Christmas carol cantata entitled "Prepare Him Room."

On March 25, the Girls' Glee, Boys' Glee, small vocal groups, solos, and the Chorus made the trip to the music clinic at Litchfield. The Chorus was chosen to sing at the evening program along with the Massed Band and Massed Chorus, and the best selection from each of the other seven schools participating.

The next performance for the vocal groups was at the Scotia gym on April 7. A program of twenty-five numbers, including both vocal and instrumental music, was presented as a pre-contest program. The Chorus closed the very enjoyable evening with its two contest numbers, "Morning Now Beckons" and "What Kinder Shoes."

On April 17, instrumental small groups, solos, and two soprano solos journeyed to Fullerton to the District VII Music Contest. Jo Ann Simpson received a rating of excellent and Claire Del Leth a rating of good in their vocal solos.

On April 18, the Triple Trio, the Boys' Quartet, the Chorus, and two baritone solos from the vocal department went to Fullerton. The Triple Trio, the Boys' Quartet, the Chorus, and both baritone solos, Bill Hatcher and Carroll Lenz, received superiors. Excellents were awarded to the Girls' and Boys' Glee's.

To end the year's activities in the vocal department, the Chorus sang at the commencement exercises on May 15.

We thank you, Mr. Trent, for the fine job you have done in making this year in music a successful one.

Our school band, under the direction of Glenn Trent, was composed of fifty members this year. The band began its practice early and made their first trip to the Howard County Fair before school started. Their next performance was on September 13 at the Pop Corn Days celebration at North Loup.

On October 20 at the Grand Island Harvest of Harmony, the marching band strutted onto the field to be awarded a two rating. This added a blue ribbon to our flag.

The next Saturday, October 17, the band journeyed to Hastings to take part in the homecoming celebration. The mass band was under the direction of David Bennett. The band will long remember the cold morning spent rehearsing for the concert before the football game that night.

One of the outstanding performances at the football games was the Arcadia game. Majorette Mary Kay Grohosky seemed to be having quite a bit of difficulty with the band. Mr. Frazer, dressed in his red flannels and firing his pistol, led the band across the field in an excellent performance.

The concert band presented its winter concert on February 5. Music of every style and type was enjoyed by the audience.

After the concert, our thoughts turned to the approaching clinics and contest. On March 25 the Loup Valley clinic was held at Litchfield with Donald Lentz, the university instructor, as the band critic. The band presented its three contest numbers, "E Pluribus Unum," "Horizon," and "Beethoven." Several soloists and small groups also performed.

Eleanor Meyer and Gayle Portis entered their solos in the instrumental division at the Inter-High school contest at Kearney on March 28.

On April 17 and 18, contest days arrived. All soloists and small groups presented their numbers the first day. The band numbers were on the second day. Contest was another occasion when Scotia school had a right to be proud. In the instrumental department we brought home six superiors and nine excellents. In the entire music department we had 11 superiors, 12 excellents, and one good.

In the instrumental division, the band received a superior. The following soloists also received superiors. They were: Carroll Lenz—trombone solo, Bill Hatcher—piano solo, Mary Kay Grohosky—saxophone solo, Gayle Portis—clarinet solo, and Patricia Bredthauer—flute solo.

The nine excellents went to Tom Williams—cornet solo, Darrel Vance—cornet solo, Eleanor Meyer—saxophone solo, Gregory Stillman—clarinet solo, Marcia Spencer—flute solo, the saxophone duet, flute trio, clarinet quartet, and the brass sextet.
