Juniors are Remembered in Seniors' Will

We, the Senior Class of 1957, of the Scotia Consolidated Schools, in the town of Scotia, county of Greeley, state of Nebraska, and the country of the U. S. A., being of nineteen individual and distinct parts about to pass out of this realm of education in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory, and almost super-human understanding, do make and publish this our last will and testament. We do hope that our most valuable possessions will always be kept in the hands of safe-keeping.

TO THE FACULTY: We give sweet dreams and restful nights, after we have graduated. Also we bequeath to our beloved faculty all the amazing knowledge and startling information that we have furnished them from time to time on our various examination papers. We hope that someday they will again have the opportunity to teach such wonderful and intelligent students, as we have been.

TO THE FRESHMEN, CLASS OF '60: We request that our grades be thoroughly disinfected so that there will be no danger of future contamination to afflict them.

TO THE SOPHOMORES, CLASS OF '59: We leave our experience of the past four years along with our best wishes. If they spend as much time working as they do talking it will be a draw to see who is valedictorian.

TO THE JUNIORS, CLASS OF '58: Who will be taking our place next term we want to leave some of our individual, personal belongings.

BETTE BJORKLUND (BJORK) wills her singing ability to Jerry Carruth, and hopes it proves as successful to him as it has to her.

DOUGLAS PETERSON (PETE) wills his ability to follow training rules to Jerry Dulitz. No more trips to St. Paul, Goob, on nights before a game, and watch those E. P. haircuts!

JACQUE KEEP (JACK) wills her small, becoming feet to David Ashley. What's this new discovery she's using? Gro-Mor!! Try it Dave.

MERRILL JOHNSON (MYRTLE) wills his "fast" ways and his ability to get home early—in the morning—to David Karre.

MARVIN TIMMONS (MARVIE) wills his love and devotion to Marvis Beck.

DORTHY DUTCHER (DOT) wills her blonde hair, blue eyes, and "flirty" ways to Janis Cargill. Use them wisely, Jan.

ALLEN BREDTHAUER (AL) wills his car and willingness to get along with North Loup women to Frank Henke. Put it to good use, "Hook"!

CHERE HOSCH (HUSH-PUPPY) wills her Boelus boy friends to Dorothy Duester. But don't forget D. M. Dorothy???

LÉON GRANTHAM (LERON) wills his romantic ways to Peggy Wagner.

BETTY SPENCER (LIZ) wills her rock and roll music to Rich Davis.

JEROME STAM (JEROME) wills his ability to get along with the freshmen girls to Jerry Huebner.

Juniors are Remembered

YVONNE BROWN (VONNIE) wills her trips to St. Paul along with her various boy friends to Jeannette Rubenthaler! Have fun Jeannie, I did!

BETTY VANCE (BETTS) wills her "noon-hour" seat in the bleachers to Deanna Beck. Put it to good use like I have, Danny!

JERRY SIMPSON (BUTCH) wills his ability to follow his motto: Drink, Drink More, and "Me Berry" (be merry) to Sharon Bremer and Deanna Johnson.

RONALD JOHNSON (RON) wills his ability to be a star athlete to Phyllis Malottke.

LAURA FILLINGER (LAURIE) wills her ability to whisper in the study hall without getting caught to her neighbor, Larry Jess.

JIMMIE TUMA (JIM) wills his ability to be an efficient, hard working student manager to Loren Babcock.

GERALD STANGER (PEE-WEE) wills his boisterous ways to that quiet and lovable "Whitey" (Dean) Johnson.

And here is a closing tip from our class sponsors Essman and Cook: "If at first you don't succeed—don't worry about it!! We didn't!"

Seniors Sneak to Omaha

Anxiously awaited for, it was 3 o'clock Friday morning, March 22. Fifteen seniors with sponsors, Gale Cook and Rolland Essman, and bus driver, Earl Lincoln, were off to Omaha for a wonderful day.

We made a stop at Shelby for breakfast shortly after 5 a. m., then continued on our way.

Upon arriving in Omaha, we went to Boys Town and were taken through the chapel, trade school, field house and were shown the dormitories, dining halls, and other points of interest on the grounds.

Next we went to the Nebraska Deaf and Dumb School where we visited the dormitories and saw a film showing the teachers and pupils in their work.

After finding the tenth floor of Brandeis, we were served a delicious lunch—compliments of the store.

Swift & Company's packing house was next on our list of visits. Our guide told us that the plant made use of every part of the pig except the squeal.

At WOW-TV, we saw the action behind the camera as it really happens.

For our evening meal, we had a steak dinner at the Spare-Time Cafe.

To top off a perfect day, what could be nicer than a visit to the Ice Capades to see the skaters skimming over the ice in their colorful costumes.

Some 24 fun-packed hours after we departed from Scotia, we arrived home ready for a full day's sleep. Yes, we were home again; but the memories of the wonderful time—that we wouldn't have missed for the world—will remain with us for a long, long time.

'44 - '57

We were nine bright-faced, excited youngsters on that first September morning in 1944 when we were greeted by our kindergarten teacher, Miss Betty Bonser.

Those entering kindergarten were Chere Hosch, Marilyn Reeves, Joe Beck, Ronald Johnson, Linda Gebhardt, Yvonne Brown, Allen Bredthauer, Gary Toogood, and Richard Davis.

Miss Bonser was also our first grade teacher, and we had the same members.

Shane and Henry Layher joined us in the second grade, where our new teacher was Mrs. Gladys Meyer.

Our third grade teacher was Miss Viola Clement, now Mrs. John Farrell. Here we were joined by six new members, Douglas Peterson, Leon Grantham, Dorthy Dutcher, Gerald Stanger, Linda Findley, and Verlene Timmons.

Mrs. Farrell was again our teacher in the fourth grade. We gained Laura Fillinger and lost Verlene Timmons this year.

Our fifth grade started with a class of 10 members. Miss Ellen Maxon, now Mrs. Earl Lincoln, was our teacher.

Miss Wanda Ziegler, now Mrs. Rolland Essman, was our sixth grade teacher. We began this year without Richard Davis.

In the seventh grade our teacher was Miss Doris Sautter. Shirley Knutzen and Rose Mary Shaffer joined us this year.

In the eighth grade, one step away from high-school, we were happy to gain Rena Michalski. Our teacher was Miss Sautter. Rose Mary Shaffer and Shirley Knutzen left us.

Our eighth grade graduation was a happy and a sad time. We were glad to be entering into a higher realm of education, but we also knew that we would miss grade school.

Our freshman year started with 23 class members. There were 12 new faces, Jim Tuma, Jacque Keep, Marvin Timmons, Jerome Stam, Jerry Simpson, Larry Honeycutt, Betty Vance, Merrill Johnson, Bette Bjorklund, Dorthy Dutcher, Maxine Michalski, Jo Ann Iverson, and Verlene Timmons. We lost Verlene Timmons and Linda Finley towards the last of the year. We all enjoyed having Mr. Fritzen for our class sponsor.

We were absent Larry Honeycutt and Jo Ann Iverson when we started our sophomore year. By this time we were somewhat acquainted with each other and with high school. Our class sponsor this year was Mr. Essman.

Our junior year was started with a new member, Betty Spencer. This year we enjoyed the junior-senior banquet and prom. Maxine and Rena Michalski left us at the last of the year. Our sponsors were Mrs. Clark and Mr. Essman.

We began our last year, our senior, with the presence of another new face, Caroline (Kinney) Beck. This made us 20 members until we lost Linda (Gebhardt) Markvicka.

With the help of our class sponsors, Mr. Rolland Essman and Mr. Gale Cook, we made this a very successful year.

19 happy seniors marched upon the stage to receive their diplomas on May 16. This marked the end of our wonderful school days spent in Scotia Consolidated Schools.

Of the nine who started kindergarten only four remained to graduate together. They were Allen Bredthauer, Yvonne Brown, Chere Hosch, and Ronald Johnson.

Stanger-Stam Circus Attracts '57 Grads

It is the year of 1977. The scene is Washington, D. C., in the Office of Vital Statistics where Bette Bjorklund is an efficient executive aided by her worthy assistant, Dorothy Dutcher. They have a two-day vacation and have decided to spend it looking up their high school graduating class of 1957. They are going first to St. Paul, as they remember that was the favorite hang-out of their class.

As we arrive, we discover that the Howard County Fair is being held there and has doubled in size since we were last there. We went there in hopes of meeting some of our classmates.

As we arrive on the grounds, we notice a sign "Stanger-Stam Circus" which has replaced Barnum and Bailey. It appears that Gerald and Jerome are now very prosperous.

As we walk on we notice a featured attraction—Betty Spencer, snake charmer.

Walking past the kiddie cars, we notice Allen Bredthauer, engineer. After finishing college, he has reached his goal of becoming an engineer. Six little sailors seem to be enjoying the ride while their mother, Mrs. Sears, the former Jacque Keep, stands by watching. She informs us that they are now living in a river boat on the Loup River.

Well, here's a new trend—the monkeys are throwing the peanuts out of the cage!! And who is standing there in the shower of peanuts—none other than the circus' animal-keeper, Jerry Simpson.

We hailed the city's one and only taxi, from the Pink and Orange Taxi Company, and who should be the driver, but the owner, manager, and president, our ambitious little Doug Peterson, completely running the business during his "vacation" months while he is home from Stevens All-Girl College where he is coach. We arrive safe and sound at our destination, "Louie's" which is now "Lee's"—Leon Grantham, proprietor. In his spare time he writes poetry to his second wife, the former Yvonne Brown. He is her fifth husband. Vonnie assists her ever-lovin' hubby as a cigarette girl.

We seat ourselves at a candle-lit table, and who should come to join us, but Chere Hosch, who just dropped in on her way from Chicago where she made a personal appearance and is flying back to her home in Hollywood.

We finish our cup of coffee and decide to see how the dance section of Lee's has changed. From singles to doubles is all!! Is that two sets of twins, or are we just seeing double? After inquiring about the couples "cutting a rug" with the latest boy step, we find the twin girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Johnson and the twin boys the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tuma. Mrs. Johnson is the former Laura Fillinger and Mrs. Tuma is the former "Betts" Vance.

Well, here come our old classmates, Marvin Timmons and Merrill Johnson, with a fresh supply of their home-brewed liquor for Leon's and Yvonne's customers.

We decided to start back to Washington since it is getting late and we are rather tired. We start out the door and guess who we meet—our class sponsors of 1957, Mr. Gale Cook and Mr. Rolland Essman. They are just dropping in for a night's entertainment! We questioned them and found out that they are both still teaching in Scotia.

Banquet Theme is "Oriental Gardens"

Using the theme "Oriental Gardens," the junior class gave the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom at the Recreation Center May 10.

Entering the banquet room over a stone bridge with running water beneath, the guests were greeted by a coolie. The false ceiling and upper portion of the walls were made of red crepe paper with gold stars. A stone ledge with vases of oriental flowers served as the lower portion of the walls. Japanese lanterns and glass chimes hung from the ceiling. Blossoming cherry trees helped bring out the Oriental atmosphere.

Table decorations included favors of fans and coolie hats. Nut cups representing small chrysanthemums added to the beauty of the tables. Dressed as Oriental boys and girls, the waitresses and waiters were Janet Dutcher, Joyce Peterson, Dolores McNelis, Ruby Clement, Janet Jo Sixel, Sandra Gydesen, Jerry Johnson, Carroll Barnes, Keith Gydesen, Roger Davis, Jim Hamsa, and Douglas Spencer.

The four-piece band of Rollie Johnson provided the music for the evening dancing. Members of the band were seated on platforms beneath large umbrellas.

Yvonne Brown, Harvest of Harmony Queen Candidate

As Harvest of Harmony Queen Candidate for Scotia Consolidated Schools, Yvonne Brown was a guest of the Grand Island Chamber of Commerce during the Harvest of Harmony activities.

In the morning she rode in the parade through Grand Island, and then went to the Hotel Yancey with the other candidates for lunch.

Following the noon-time entertainment at the hotel, the girls were taken to the stadium where the identity of the Harvest of Harmony Queen was revealed. Each girl was presented a gift by the Chamber of Commerce during this pre-contest activity.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA is a national organization of boys studying vocational agriculture. Among its many worthwhile objectives are leadership, cooperation, love of country life, faith in the soil, thrift, and self-improvement.

In October, we attended the State Land Judging Contest in Hastings. We placed fifth among the 52 schools competing.

In November we held our annual FFA-FHA turkey feed. There were about 70 people in attendance. At this event, Betty Vance was named FFA Sweetheart and Jim Tuma was named FHA Pal.

At the state FFA convention and vocational agriculture contests in April, we placed in the blue ribbon group in poultry judging and in the red ribbon group in farm machinery and crops judging. Larry Jess and Jerry Huebner played in the State FFA band.

This year's officers were: Jim Tuma, president; Jerome Stam, vice-president; Jerry Simpson, secretary; Merrill Johnson, treasurer; Larry Jess, sentinel.

We sponsored a high school party in November.

Belt buckles were again presented to the senior boys in the organization. The belt buckles have an orange and black S inscribed on them. The S Club sold concessions at some of the basketball games.

Officers this year were: president, Douglas Peterson; vice president, Allen Bredthauer; secretary-treasurer, Jerome Stam.
