CLASS HISTORY

On the memorable day of August 30, 1948, ten children enrolled in the first grade at the North Loup School. They were Ann Friesen, Diane Knapp, Deanna DeNoyer, Agnes Drawbridge, Danny Meyers, Raymond Craft, Emanuel Skala, Kenneth Newman, Dean Lundstedt and Mary Markvicka. Our first grade teacher was Mrs. Ellamae Hill.

We started our second year with the same teacher and class members, except Ann Friesen. Patricia Gray, Bill Dunklau and Frank Kolar joined us.

Our third year was in a new room with a different teacher, Miss Clara Jensen. We lost Raymond Craft and Mary Markvicka. We gained Richard Rice and Ronnie Cummins.

The following year we remained in the same room but lost Emanuel Skala.

The fifth year we moved to a new room with Mrs. Ellen Lincoln as our teacher. Danny Meyers and Kenneth Newman moved away.

Mrs. Ellen Lincoln was our teacher again the sixth year. Norma Jorgensen, Pat Lenker and Charles Barber joined us.

Connie Hagman became a member of our class during the seventh year, with Mrs. Ellamae Hill as teacher.

The eighth year, our last year in grade school, Patricia Gray, Pat Lenker and Frank Kolar became our new class members.

Those starting the new adventure of high school were: Norma Jorgensen, Diane Knapp, Kathryn Jensen, Karen Scott, Darla Noyes, Connie Hagman, Deanna DeNoyer, Joann Leach, Phyllis White, Dean Lundstedt, Darrell Smith, Richard Rice, Arden Davis and Larry Worrell. The Freshmen class sponsor was Mordie Garrard.

The same students came back for their Sophomore year with the exception of Darrell Smith who moved to Elba. Mordie Garrard was our sponsor again that year.

Connie Hagman and Joann Leach did not return to enjoy the many activities of our Junior year. Mrs. Mary Bell was our sponsor.

Fifteen bright and excited faces approached the Scotia School House in September, 1947. Those in Kindergarten the first year were Linda Spencer, Gordon Polinoski, Francis Spilinek, Larry Keep, Connie Davis, Kenneth Newman, Margaret Karre, Eva Jo Wegner, Patsy Coufal, Junior Newman, Bennie Davis, Sally Gebhardt, Marilyn Franssen, James Weeks and Laretta Jess. Mrs. Helen Krebs was our teacher.

In the first grade, we were joined by Daryl Smith and Charles Jensen. We lost Kenneth Newman, Patsy Coufal, Junior Newman and Marilyn Franssen. This made us a happy group of thirteen. Our teacher was Mrs. Gladys Meyer.

In the second grade, Sharon Bell and Robin Bradley joined us; but we lost Francis Spilinek, Connie Davis, Bennie Davis, Eva Jo Wegner, Daryl Smith and Charles Jensen.

We began our third grade with three new faces, Shirley Johnson, Gay Barth and Bobby Hatcher. We lost Sharon Bell and Robin Bradley.

In the fourth grade, we gained Dickie Michalski, making our number eleven. Mrs. Viola Farrell was our third and fourth grade teacher.

During the fifth grade, Karen Hinton joined us; and Shirley Johnson and Gay Barth moved. The enrollment remained the same during the sixth grade. Mrs. Wanda Essman was our fifth and sixth grade teacher.

Miss Doris Sautter was our seventh grade teacher. We were joined that year by Eva Jo Wegner. Dickie Michalski left us.

There were eleven of us to receive our eighth grade diplomas. Ruby Morrow joined us that year. Linda Johnson and Karen Hinton moved away. Miss McCauley was our teacher.

CLASS PROPHECY

This year is 1980, a successful year for the North Loup-Scotia High School Seniors of 1960. It marks the 75th anniversary of "Pop Corn Days" held in North Loup. Our sponsor, Mr. Applegate, has left his rocking chair at the Jess Rest Home, where he is spending his retirement, to attend Pop Corn Days. Laretta cares for retired teachers because she always felt sorry for them when she was in school.

As Mr. Applegate hobbles down main street, his eye catches a sign which reads "White-Barnes Carnival." Mr. Applegate, being the inquisitive type, decides to pay a visit to the owners. They are none other than Phyllis White and George Barnes, Jr. George had always wanted to operate a rodeo; but instead, he settled for a carnival. His partner, Phyllis, first became interested in carnivals at the FHA carnival in high school. As Mr. Applegate was talking to them, he found that Vern Keep and the former Norma Jorgensen were employed at the carnival as guides through the "Fun House." Jim Leth was also working there as "Muscle Man." Willy tells him he always envied his classmates' strength. After high school he took a correspondence course to build up "big, beautiful muscles."

As Mr. Applegate starts down the midway, he meets Gordon Polinoski and his cousin, LeRoy Gydesen. Gordon says he is on furlough from Africa where he is working as a missionary, and LeRoy is his assistant there.

At the cotton candy machine, Mr. Applegate meets Carol Moody and Kathryn Jensen. Carol says she is nursing monkeys back to health. They are the ones which failed to reach the moon. Kathryn is now chief pencil sharpener at Dog Biscuits, Inc.

Mr. Applegate looks at his watch and sees that it is about time for the program so he hobbles on down that way to get a seat. Who should be playing the Hammond organ but Darrel Byerly. Darrel decided to start taking lessons after he heard a modern problems discussion on the benefits of music appreciation. Now the program is beginning. Wait! Who is the announcer? Sure enough, it is Walter Bjorklund, head of the KHAS-TV Station. Walter gained this position mainly because of his "gift of gab." One of the acts on the program is the Huebner-Morrow Madrigal. Janice and Ruby say that their off-spring practice singing while hoeing cabbage on their cabbage farms.

After the afternoon program, Mr. Applegate hurries up to the main street to get a good place to view the parade. Marching sharply into the picture comes that talented musician from our high school days, Linda Spencer, with the 75-piece Cotesfield Band. Linda always enjoyed her music classes so much in high school that she didn't want to give them up. She is now teaching music.

Leading the school floats is District 42, Larry Worrell, teacher. Larry has only one complaint; his school has the only outdoor rest rooms in the state. Diane Knapp is driving the float that won first place in the advertising division. It is a float advertising her drive-in theater. She decided it was much cheaper to own the drive-in than take her five sons to the show every night. Here comes Phyllis Kment, winner of the "Powder Puff Derby," driving her well known car, 10x. She found it was easier on her to drive than to watch the auto races.

After the exhausting parade, Mr. Applegate decides to rest his weary bones. As he passes the newsstand, the heavy print on the Post magazine attracts his attention. It says "Be Kyhn to Your Fellow Man" written by none other than Katherine Johnson. Sitting down he notices the person next to him is Deanna Meyer. She tells him she overcame her fear of high jumping and is now teaching kangaroos the correct way to jump. Sitting next to Deanna is Karen Scott. She says she is director of the nationally known TV show "Annie Get Your Gun." The invaluable experience of directing the senior class play helped her obtain this position.

On his way to the night performance, Mr. Applegate stops in to see the exhibits. He is greatly surprised when he sees Richard Rice and Darla Noyes showing off their Texas leg-horn chickens. They say they are the proud owners of a chicken ranch.

Starting off the night performances are the "Four Bells" which consist of James Weeks, Dean Lundstedt, Arden Davis and Fred Stanger. Last week they appeared on Broadway and next week they will be appearing several places on the west coast. Next on the program is the national Hoola Hooper winner, Sally Gebhardt, who can work six hoola hoops at one time. The employment agency had suggested to Sally that Hoola Hooping would be her best field. Last, but not least on the program, is the great dog trainer, Betty Medbery, and her assistant, Deanna DeNoyer. They are the proud owners of a Paris Dog Pound and have trained some of the dogs in their care to do unbelievable tricks.

After the program, Mr. Applegate decided to stop for a bite to eat at a church lunch stand before journeying home. Who should serve him but Margret Karre. She tells him that in her spare time she writes the "Lovelorn" column for the Chicago Times. Just as he is ready to leave, Professor Larry Keep and his friend, Marcella Parker, walk up. Larry tells him that he is Professor of Astronomy at Oxford. He says that he became interested in the stars while driving between Scotia and Cotesfield. Even though Marcella is busy with her nurse's training, Larry and she still find time to watch the stars together.

Mr. Applegate can't find the rest home car anywhere so he decides to call a taxi. Who should be driving it but Beverly Allison. Beverly says that she had started to college but decided to be a taxi cab driver instead, even though she hasn't received her driver's license yet. As Mr. Applegate relaxes in the taxi, he realizes he has seen every member of the 1960 Senior Class.

SENIOR SNEAK DAY

On Wednesday, April 6, at 3:00 in the morning the Senior Class and their two sponsors went to Omaha for Senior Sneak Day. Breakfast was eaten at Shelby. After arriving in Omaha, tours of Boys' Town and Swift and Company were taken. A delicious lunch, a compliment of the store, was eaten at Brandeis.

A visit to Kitty Clover Company was the last tour of the day. The remainder of the afternoon was spent shopping down town. A buffet dinner was enjoyed at the Fireside Restaurant before the finale of the excursion which was the Ice Capades at the Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held May 3 at the high school gymnasium. The theme was "Neptune's Court." A ceiling of solid aqua crepe paper and aqua streamers surrounded the banquet area. An underwater atmosphere was emphasized by marine life muralprints hanging from the ceiling. Neptune's court was made of a large clam shell on which rested the seaweed crown. The Sophomore waiters and waitresses were dressed in black and white with aqua aprons and ties. Following the banquet, the Prom was held at the Community Hall in North Loup.
