DEDICATION

VICKI

Vicki, always happy,
Smiling, laughing, gay,
Spreading joy and happiness
Each and every day.

Vicki, oh so sweet and dear
In your friendly, loving way
Could always find the better side
Of anyone today.

You had an inner beauty
Which made your heart pure gold,
And your voice was like the angels
As they sang in years of old.

Vicki, we will miss you so,
Your voice, your smile, your cheer,
Even though it was God's will
That you depart from here.

We know that you are happy
And want us to be too,
So we'll pray to God to help us
Not to grieve for you.

For you were but a thread
That was woven in our life,
To help us and to guide us
'Til Everlasting Life.

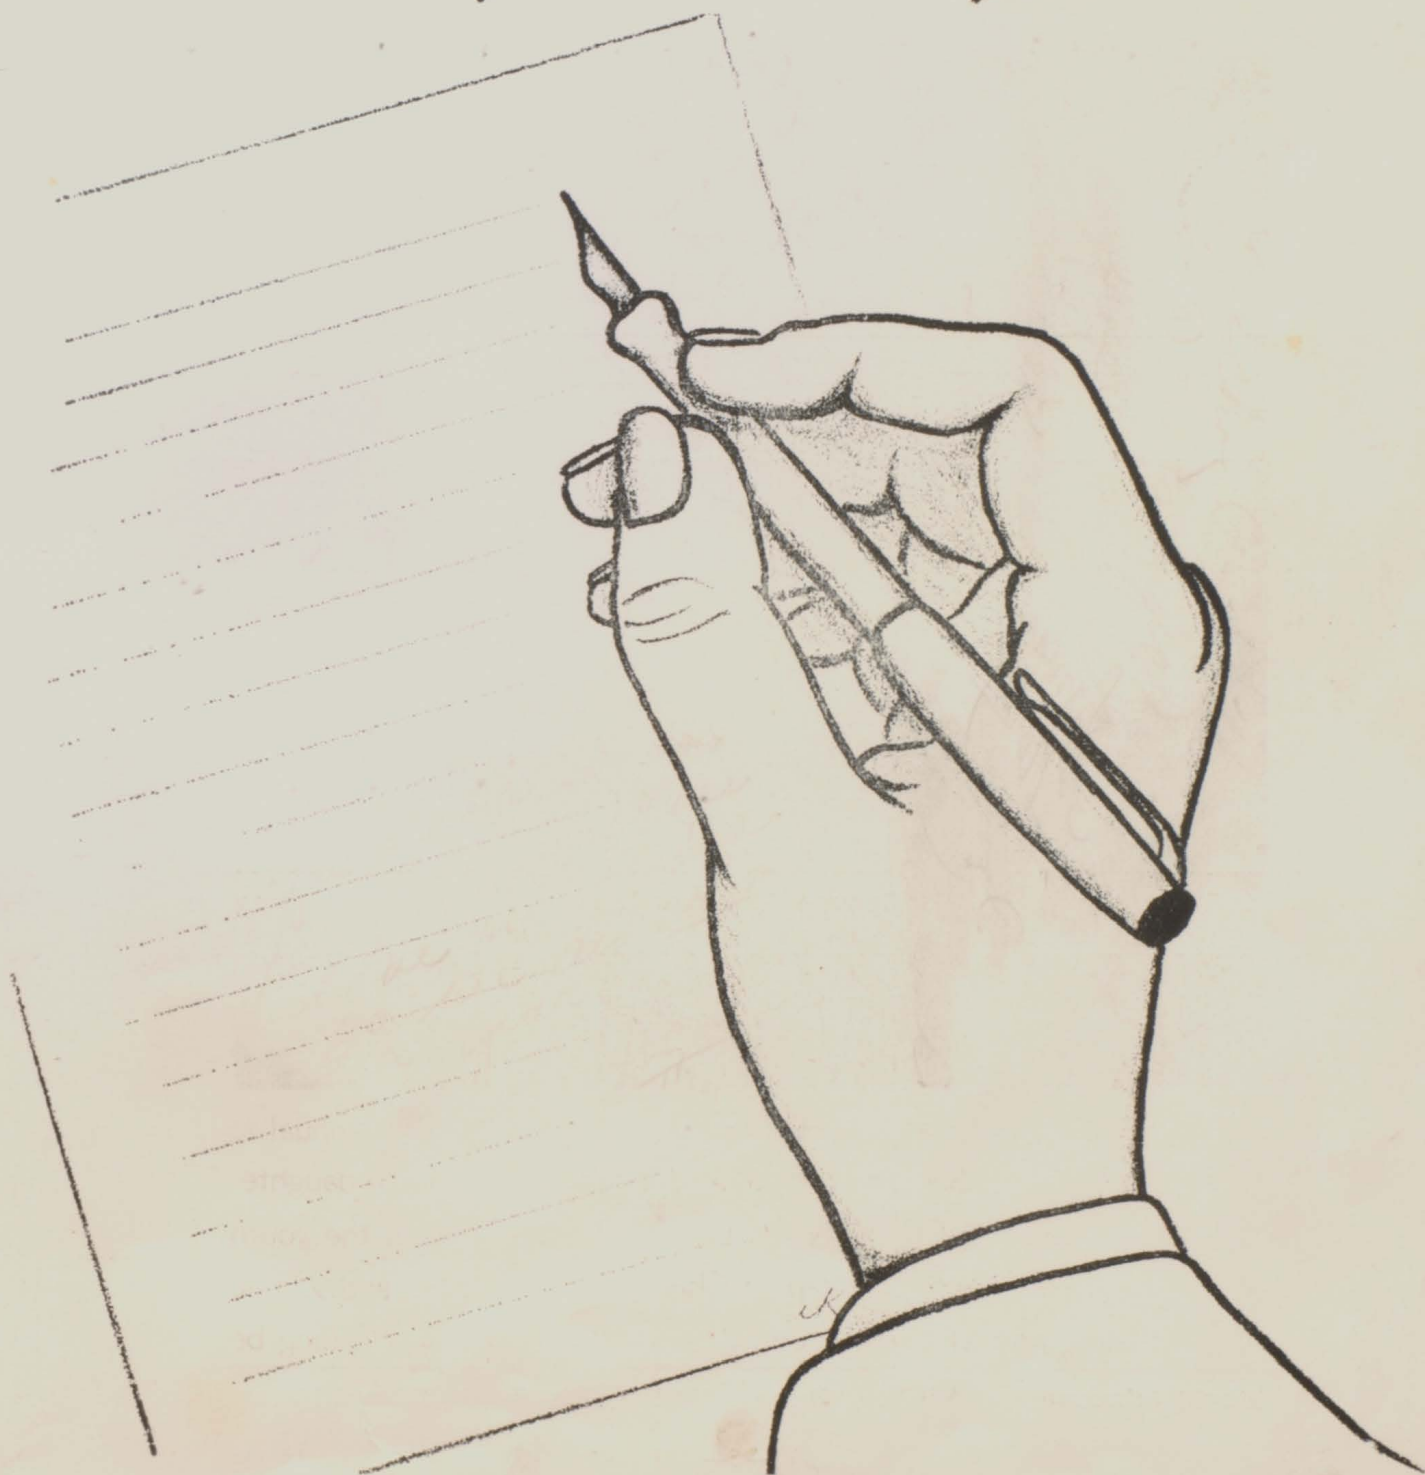

—A tribute by a schoolmate

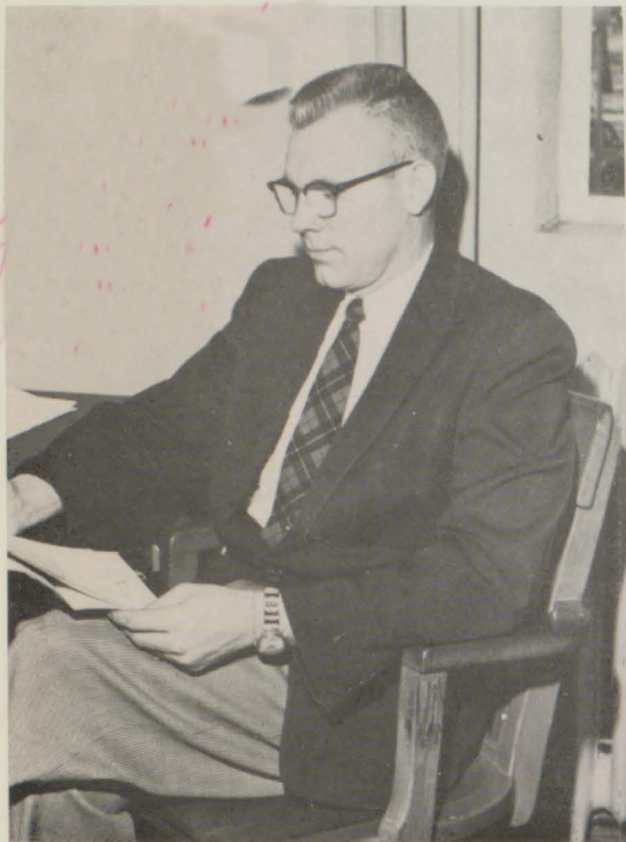

We, the Annual Staff of 1961, are proud to dedicate this annual to the memory of Vicki Sue Cox. Vicki, a seventh grader, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erlo Cox of North Loup. She took part in the youth activities of the Seventh Day Baptist Church, the 4-H Club, and school. Vicki was exceptionally well liked by her schoolmates and will long be remembered for her warm smile and friendly manners.

CLASS HISTORY

The 1958 Scotia Freshmen Class consisted of Jim Stillman, Harold Smith, Vernon Moody, David Everett, Kenneth Bennett, Kenneth Brown, Orville Gydesen, Betty Lou Thomas, Leila Stevens, Mary Jean Placke, Linda Peterson, Karol Polinoski, Delores Johnson and Linda Williams. Howard Glines joined us during the year. Our sponsor was Mr. Stanley Garretson. We took a field trip to Grand Island and visited several companies.

Fred Esser was our Sophomore Class sponsor. We hiked to the Chalk Mines for a weiner roast as a class party.

The North Loup Freshmen Class of 1958 consisted of Judy Sheldon, Charles Drawbridge, Betty Einspahr, Ronnie Boyce, Lynn Schauer, Dennis Cox, Ardith King, Bob Brennick, Linda Sawyer, Mary Markvicka, Glen Dierberger, Sonja Sintek, James Morrow, Dean Williams, Larry Jensen, Raymond Craft and Sherry Sheldon. Mr. William Sollars was class sponsor. Our class party was a watermelon feed and skating party.

Our Freshman sponsor stayed with us our Sophomore year. Sherry Sheldon did not return but we were joined by Jim Pray and Pat Lenker. For our class party we played bingo and volleyball.

The Sophomore Classes from both schools became the first Junior Class of the merged schools. During this year we lost Delores Johnson, Pat Lenker and James Morrow. Our sponsors were Mrs. Madge Buehler and Mr. Rolland Essman. The big event was, of course, the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

During our Senior year, we lost Sonja Sintek. Mrs. Mildred Stewart and Mr. Lee De Jonge served as our class sponsors. We had numerous big events, but the Banquet and Prom, Sneak-day, and Graduation were no doubt most important.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of '61, being of sound mind and body on this the 18th day of May of the year of our Lord 1961, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave the fond memories of an extremely quiet, studious, well-mannered, "go-beyond-the-call-of duty," rough-and-ready class that we were.

To the Freshmen we leave the hope that they will follow in our footsteps down to the last little mannerism. We also hope you have the same intellectual ability that we have.

To the Sophomores we leave our witty ways, social whirls and romantic ideas.

To the Juniors we leave our most valuable possessions:

I, Larry (Jens) Jensen, will my false teeth to Joan Cargill so she can bite as well as bark.

I, Karol (T.K.) Polinoski, will my long legs to David Stanger so he can outrun the daring young girl students.

I, Kenneth (Brownie) Brown, will my wolfishness to Steve Reeves so he can chase instead of being chased.

I, Glen (Pinky) Dierberger, will my good eating habits to Wilber Medbery. I guess neither of us will starve.

I, Charles (Charlie) Drawbridge, will my ability to make free throws to Dallas Donscheski in hopes he will make the team next year.

I, Leila (Butch) Stevens, will my passenger to volleyball practice to Galen Tuma so he will appreciate those cold mornings more than I did.

I, Orville (Oscar) Gydesen, will my brother to Laura Craft.

I, Dennis (Denny) Cox, will my punctuality to Ronnie Jensen so he can sit closest to the teacher. The paper wads hurt more at a close range.

I, Harold (Smitty) Smith, will my bus to cousin Larry Smith so he also can say "my bus was late" when he is tardy.

I, Mary (Mamie) Placke, will my F. H. A. gavel to Cheryl Cook so she can make the Pep Club "holler" next year.

I, Lynn (Lynn) Schauer, will my beautiful curly locks to Dennis Bennett, not that he really needs them.

I, Betty (Betts) Einspahr, will my rock to Janet Jess. We might as well keep it in the family.

I, Janice (Jani) Scott, will my giggle to Roy Stam; you must keep those cows happy at milking time.

I, Howard (Howie) Glines, will my Lincoln experiences to Roger Williams so Modern Problems Class will not be dull next year.

I, Lynn (Bob) Brennick, will my "drawl" to Teddi (Motor Mouth) Meyer.

I, Linda (Petie) Peterson, will my good driving habits to Kent Dowse and Ray Patrick. Let's hold down that motorscooter.

I, Mary (Sammie) Markvicka, will my position as captain of the volleyball team to Mary Bredthauer. Since the seniors will be gone next year, the team will need everybody they can get.

I, Linda (Lindy) Sawyer, will my knack of giving directions to Barbara Peterson and Betty Jorgensen so the Pep Club can find their way to Ansley next year.

I, Kenneth (Ken) Bennett, will my evenings to Anna Fenton. I might as well, since I am always over there anyway.

I, Raymond (Ray) Craft, will my many hours spent toiling over home work to Dale Huebner. Let's hit those books a little harder, Dale.

I, Linda (Spike) Williams, will my long legs and volleyball tactics to Carol Johnson—with the added height she won't need the tactics.

I, Betty (Batty) Thomas, will my casual walk to Gary Klein.

I, Jim (Art) Stillman, will my way with women to Richard Savage and Ronnie Moravec. Be sure to give it the publicity that I did.

I, Ron (Ronnie) Boyce, will my quiet, shy manner to Larry Mulligan. Take a hint, Larry.

SENIOR CLASS WILL CONTINUED

I, Judy (Mushface) Sheldon, will my chess record to Richard Bremer. Maybe next year you will be able to beat some unsuspecting seventh grader.

I, Ardith (Ardie) King, will my "rip-roarin' ready-to-go" evenings to Mary Ellen Scott. Don't let things get dull.

I, Dean Williams, will my dark shadowy lane to Doris Vance and Jerry Waller. At least it's good for hunting Easter eggs.

We, David (J. C.) Everett, and Vernon (Vern) Moody, will our Ag ability to Leonard Burton. You don't really need it, but we, the annual staff, have run out of ideas.

—Senior Class of '61.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year nineteen hundred and eighty-one, we find Mr. De Jonge, his wife, and their twelve little ones packed into their compact rocket, just landing on the White House Lawn, in Washington, D. C. Running down the White House steps to greet them is the President of the United States, Leila Stevens, first woman President. Being President of the Senior Class gave her the needed experience. Accompanying her is the First Man, Charles Drawbridge. Charlie never could make his way in the world after wrecking all his stock cars. He is now head of the Right of Way Division of the United States.

After requesting a tour of the White House, the official guide, Linda Sawyer, directs them. Linda always knew her way around. On their tour, Leo, the youngest child, trips over a bucket and finds himself face to face with Linda Peterson, the White House maid. Linda explains that she got her start in her class plays. They are served a delicious lunch of beans and weiners by Mary Placke, the chief cook and bottle washer. She says she stole all her recipes from the school cooks.

They are next shown one of the White House gardens. While looking at the flowers they run into the chief gardener, Vernon Moody. With him are his able-bodied assistants, Larry Jensen and Raymond Craft. They tell the group that they acquired their knowledge of plants in their good old Ag classes. Also while outside, the De Jonges see the President's latest moon rocket. They see Dean Williams and Ronnie Boyce crawling out from under the rocket. Dean says that he has been bending out the dents put there by meteorites. Ronnie says he has been "souping" up the engine. The De Jonges journey on to the President's golf course. They see Karol Polinoski, the President's golf tutor, out getting a few swings. Physical Education always was Kay's favorite subject. Loris, the eleventh child, almost gets hit by a lawn mower, driven by David Everett. He says that being out in the open gives him a chance to study birds and heavenly bodies. They see Harold Smith mysteriously carrying a load of grass beyond the sand trap. They follow him and after catching him he explains that he is the chief hay "gatherer upperer" for the White House stables. Out on the track they see Mary Markvicka, who is training the President's horses. Even though Mary works in Washington, D. C., she always makes it home to ride in the horse show at Pop Corn Days. The group decides it is time to see the capitol. On their way they meet the former Betty Einspahr and her husband. They say they are on their second honeymoon. Their first was shortly after Betty's graduation.

At the capitol they are introduced to the Speaker of the House, but find they really needed no introduction. He is none other than the Honorable James A. Stillman. He could always talk his way into anything. They decide to start in the basement and there they find Dennis Cox and Lynn Schauer receiving Russian secret code over their short wave set.

On the next floor they walk into the Department of the Army office and see the former Jani Scott pleading with the Defense Secretary to get the army men stationed closer to home.

In the office of the Secretary of the Treasury they see Betty Lou Thomas balancing the budget. While they are there Ardith King comes dashing in with a new design for the $1,000 bill. She has drawn a picture of Glen Dierberger on it. Pinky is the only person she could think of who had a beard. This should prove interesting since the bills will be produced in technicolor. Ardith says that it is too bad Linda Williams didn't come with her, but she is busy taking samples at the U. S. Mint. Out in the hall they meet their Nebraska Senators, Kenny Bennett and Orville Gydesen. Mrs. De Jonge is very happy to see them, because she gave them their start in high school business law.

The group hurries out to catch a taxi and they see the driver is Howard Glines. They find that even though he took driver's training at school he can still drive. He takes them to Arlington Cemetery just in time to see the changing of the guards. They then see the guards, Bob Brennick and Kenny Brown, starting across the street and realize they will have quite a wait before they see the change.

The De Jonges use their complimentary tickets to see Judy Sheldon perform at the Ford Theatre that evening. She is the only member of the cast, directed by Mrs. Stewart. After directing the Senior Class Play, Mrs. Stewart knew she could direct anything. Judy has been a star ever since her first T. V. performance.

As they leave the theatre, the De Jonges realize they have heard from every member of the Senior Class of 1961.

SENIOR SNEAK DAY

On Monday, February 13, at 3:00 in the morning the Senior Class and two sponsors left for Omaha on our Sneak Day.

In Omaha we toured Boy's Town, Swift and Company, and Brandeis. After shopping in Omaha we went to Lincoln for supper at King's and the Ice Capades at the Pershing Municipal Auditorium.

We arrived home at 3:15 after a day of fun and excitement.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held April 25 at the high school gymnasium. The theme was "An Evening in Paris." The ceiling was of Blue-Star crepe and the banquet area was decorated as sidewalk cafes. The Sophomore waiters and waitresses were dressed as French chefs and maids. Following the banquet, the prom was held.

KEARNEY SCHOLASTIC CONTEST SCORES

The North Loup-Scotia school came out with two first places at the high school interscholastic contests at Kearney state college March 24. 27 NL-S students competed.

Richard Bremer place first in the world history division in which there were 105 contestants. He also finished eighth out of 152 in American government and 49th of 114 in American history.

Judy Sheldon placed first out of 41 in the first-year Spanish group and 41st of 143 in chemistry.

Karol Polinoski was in second place out of 50 contestants in oral interpretation of prose literature and classed as superior.

David Everett placed fifth in a field of 35 in bird study.

Linda Williams finished seventh among 71 music theory contestants.

Ardith King placed fifth in a field of 35 in art discernment and 29th of 70 in art ability.

Others who were listed, placing and number of students entered: Diana Wells, beginning typing, 35-120, plane geometry, 46-107; Leila Stevens, trigonometry, 15-45, physics, 24-156, chemistry, 37-143; Doris Vance, short hand, 32-64; Dean Williams, music, 32-71; Chas. Drawbridge, physics, 34-156; Cheryl Cook, original public address, excellent; Jane Burrows, general biology, 36-124; Dennis Gebhardt, general science, 32-109; Rolland Davis, driver education, 22-87; Harold Smith, general metals, 6-17; and Bob Whalen, world geography, 46-141.

Chas. Drawbridge and Dean Williams were last-minute replacements in their fields and had not planned to enter the contests.

Other NL-S students who participated: Mary Placke, Allan Cox, Dale Huebner, Pam Sixel, Sheila Jeffres, Betty Lou Thomas, Monna Craft, Sharee Klein, Wilber Medbery, Linda Peterson, Audrey Keep and Carol Sue Sintek.

Some of the youngsters commendably entered in fields in which they had not prepared but took part for the valuable educational experience to be gained.
