Insert coin. Push start. Adjust eyeballs. Let's focus on our video friends as they munch their way through 1982 and 83. Video games have become a very popular pastime in the life of today's teenagers. So turn the page and get the fever. Ready? Set? Munch!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

IN MEMORY OF KELLY PLETCHER

It's been a year now and you've been gone,
Yet the world keeps going on.
We love you now as much as then,
And our hearts will mend.
God has a plan and who are we to say,
"God, why did you take our friend away?"
The question why is not for us to ask
But to accept the fact that on earth she fulfilled her given task.
We'll wait as patiently as we can
Till Jesus comes to earth again.
And on that bright and lovely morn,
We'll see our precious friend once more.
And as we talk to God on High,
We finally understand the reason why.

We the Annual Staff of 1983, would like to dedicate this annual to Kelly Pletcher. Through this dedication, we wish to express the sorrow we feel at the loss of our friend Kelly, and the comfort we feel to know that now she is happy. Our memories of her will never be forgotten.

Class Poem: "Graduation Day"
 Today we'll start a new life,
 And we'll say our last goodbyes,
 To all of our friends we've grown
 to love,
 With whom we've laughed and cried.
 Remember the fun and laughter,
 The problems and the fears,
 And watching all of our memories
 grow,
 Throughout our high school years.
 The memories of our dances,
 And the new friends that we've met.
 Vacations, teachers, talking,
 And exams we'd rather forget!
 Yes, high school days are precious, but brief.
 Where all your dreams come true.
 It is not the end but the beginning,
 Of a life we'll start anew.

The Juniors showed lots of spirit this year in munching their way to '84. The year started out with football and volleyball, for some cheerleading and FFA for others, and about any other activity imaginable for still others. Who will ever forget Annice Malmstrom as "Sheriff Womper" in the Junior Class Play, (She'll get those handcuffs figured out yet!) the circus that didn't come to town, the splashes of the dunking stand at Scotia Homecoming, Steven Mallery winning the "Sexiest Legs of the School" contest during Homecoming week, and last, but certainly not least, the crazy days and nights of getting ready for prom.

SOPHOMORES

As sophomores, the class of '85 is getting a better view and anxiously awaiting their goal of 1985. No longer "lowly freshmen," the sophomores have shown their talents by participating and excelling in various school activities. As a class, they have sold concessions at the wettest football game of the season, and exchanged gifts at Christmas. Their fearless leader, Mr. Svoboda, now has more gray hairs than ever! As sophomores, they realize they are depended upon more and carry greater responsibility. Through Geometry, Biology, and Driver's Ed. the class of '85 is not yet dead!

The Class of '87 enjoyed their year of not being "the new kids on the block" by making their mark in the school. They enjoyed basketball, pep club, cheer-leading, concessions, band, and everything else they were involved in. Watch out for these kids in the years to come!

The Varsity Volleyball team of 1983 proved their power as they finished 8-7, finished 3rd at the S.A. Invite, and grabbed 3rd in the CVC Conference. Seniors Ronda Leth and Sondra Hansen, and Sophomore Theresa Glos were chosen for the All-Conference Second Team. Under Coaches Svoboda and Huskey, the team proved to themselves that they could be winners!

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team continued their winning ways by finishing out the year with an impressive 8-1 record. Leadership was shown by the team members, as well as valuable contributions by the younger girls. The future of VB at NL-S definitely looks bright, if the hard work and dedication of the Junior Varsity team is any indication.

1982-83 Girls Basketball proved to be one of the best teams overall in NL-S BB. history. The lady cats improved in average pts. per game, total steals, fewest turnovers, and field goal percentage. Many players set new records in Girls BB. Sondra Hansen and Ronda Leth were chosen 2nd team all conference. While Sondra was also chosen Honorable Mention in Class C Heartland Girls BB. Stars Team. Four of the girls 8 losses were in very close games losing by a total of 7 pts. with 1 game going into overtime. The girls are proud of their hard work and proud to be a part of the NL-S BB. Team.

The 1982-83 boys basketball team started out not knowing what to expect. After Christmas though, the Varsity showed their team work and determination by winning 8 of 12 games. With the help of Coach Butts the team received a third place trophy at conference and finished the season with an 8-8 record. The reserves proved their ability with a season record of 7-1. Coach Svoboda had a very good reason to be proud of the reserve team. Wes Sich was selected to 1st Team all-conference and Honorable Mention in the GI Indep. & Omaha World Herald. Karl Davis was on the 2nd team all conference and honorable mention in the GI Independent.

JR. HIGH TRACK

With long practices and aches and pains, the Junior High Track Teams came through with winning seasons. The boys' team received 1st place at the Wheeler Central Invitational and 2nd at the NL-S Invitational. The girls' team received 1st at the NL-S Invitational Meet. We can give these young tracksters a lot of credit for their hard work and ambition.

ANNUAL STAFF'S VISIONS OF VIDEO

The Annual Staff of 1982-83 had a fun year putting together an annual that would make even Frogger sit up and take notice. The invasion of video games into the area is apparent by the enthusiasm shown towards working on the annual. The '83 annual was again financed by the sale of magazines, ads, community activity calendars, and of course, annuals.

The Student Council has been as busy as ever, in widely varied projects. The Council contributed to the Christmas spirit by providing a beautifully decorated tree; and continued their duties with the pop machine to provide several Seniors with scholarships to continue their education. Under the capable leadership of President John Peterson, the Student Council completed another successful year.

You've heard of "asteroid elbow." Well this year the Lettermen's Club worked hard enough to get "Wildcat wrist." When the Lady Wildcats had tournament games, the Lettermen provided them with doughnuts and basketball cut-outs for spirit. The junior high tournament was sponsored by the Lettermen's and "W" Club. Our members worked at the concession stand and as scorekeepers. Along with the "W" Club, they also provided money for the sports pages in the annual. Officers are shown in the upper left photo: Treas- David Peetz, Pres- Karl Davis, Vice Pres-Mark Wells, and Sec-Greg Moody.

The "W" Club holds the "high score" this year for promoting Wildcat pride. They supported the boys with gifts for each member of the football and basketball teams. The "W" Club helped sponsor the junior high tournament and this year they worked with the Letterman's Club to raise money for more weights for the athletic department. Officers are shown above L to R: Treas-Sondra Hansen, Vice Pres-Ronda Leth, Sec-Ann Noonan, Pres-Michelle Wegner.

This year the pep club was very active. They had many activities to keep them busy. Homecoming was a busy time for the pep club, as usual, planning spirit week, and preparing all of the decorations. The pep club was also very busy with concession stands. We had a new experience this year, we had Boys Cheerleaders, and Girls Cheerleaders. It was a very trying experience, and it worked out well, and added a lot of spirit to the pep club. Keep up the good work and keep on showing the NL-S PRIDE.

Pep Club Officers: Beth Dutcher, President, Becky Goldfish, Secretary, Sondra Hansen, Vice President.

The theme "Abracadabra" accurately described the magic of Homecoming 1982. The week began with "Headband and Sweat Clothes Day," "Punk Rock Day," "Dork Day," and "Hillbilly Day," and ended with "Dress-Up Day." Further excitement was added by daily contests ranging from finding a lifesaver in a pan of whipped cream, to wheelbarrow races and "stripping and dressing" in a sleeping bag. The teachers warned us of some things NOT to do in school in their annual skit. The week ended with crowning of royalty and a football battle with Ansley.

CLASS OF '84 PRESENTS . . .

The evening performance was set in a southern mansion housed by several disturbed people. Reinfield was a crazy maniac with his constant fixation with sports. Lucy and Mina were suffering from the vampire activities of Dracula. The maid, butler and Rose were dismayed by the lack of household organization. Doc and Bobby Joe were very concerned about the health of the ladies so they called in Colonel Van Helsing, the specialist. Sheriff Womper arrived to help solve the mystery. In the process of locking up the mystery, Sheriff Womper became hand-cuffed for a long period of time. Our gift to Mr. Shoemaker was dracula's weakness — mixed nuts. The class of 1984 will always remember "The Count Will Rise Again."

Back Row: Dracula — E. Glines, Col. Van Helsing — T. Hawley, Bobby Joe Parker — S. Mallery, Doc Stuart — G. Moody, Regis (Butler) — T. Johnson, Sheriff Wanda Womper — A. Malmstrom, Front Row: Reinfield — A. Dutcher, Ms. Lucy — T. Poss, Ms. Rose — L. Hudson, Ann (Maid) — A. Noonan, Ms. Mina — J. Knee.

"What am I gonna do?"

"They in a heap a trouble."

"Follow through . . ."

THE COUNT WILL RISE AGAIN

"Dracula!"

"What are we gonna do?"

"The key's stuck!"

"Praise the Lord and pass the peanuts!"

"Annie Get Your Gun" provided lots of fun for the Seniors of 1983. The play centered around the shooting talents of Annie Oakley (Sondra H.) and Frank Butler (Mark W.). Pawnee Bill (Karl D.,) and Buffalo Bill (David P.) need the sharpshooters to keep their shows alive., The competition is made tougher by the plotting of Charlie Davenport, (John P.) Dolly Tate, (Patty W.) and Sitting Bull; (Greg G.) and the marriage of Winnie Tate (Ronda L.) and Tommy Keeler, (Dan J.) Of course love triumphs, (Frank keeps his pride, Sitting Bull keeps his money, and the "Bills" combine their shows) and everyone lives happily ever after! (Except a few birds.)

The miniature arcade was the center of attraction at this year's Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom. The dimly lit room was decorated in blue and silver with murals and stars on the walls. The spaceship sat to the side and the punch and ice tea were served from craters.

Cletus Fisher, Offensive Line Coach for the University of Nebraska.

This year we had Cletus Fisher, the Offensive Line Coach for the University of Nebraska, for the guest speaker. For supper we had swiss steak, baked potatoes, corn, salad, and strawberry shortcake. The Booster Club made posters of past scores of basketball, football, and volleyball games. The athletes of NLS would like to thank the Booster Club for all of their support during this year.

HONOR'S NIGHT

Honors sure are nice!

Honors Night, 1983, honored a total of 121 elementary, junior, and senior high students. Besides the usual letters, some special awards were given. 41 students received Honor Roll certificates, and 18 students received perfect attendance awards. Dr. Jackson Hammitt of Chadron State College presented certificates of participation to all students who attended the CSC Inter-School Scholastic Contest. He also presented special certificates to Greg Moody and Gale Clement for placing in the top 20% of their respective tests. Janet Knee was given a gold medal for placing first in Bookkeeping. Special senior awards were: Beth Dutcher, DAR Award; Sondra Hansen, "I Dare You" Award; Rhonda Smith, John Phillip Sousa and National Choral Awards; Citizenship Awards, Karl Davis and Rhonda Smith; Patty Wondercheck, Outstanding Senior Speech Award; Greg Gillham, Outstanding Senior Science Student.

Class Poem

GRADUATION DAY
Today we'll start a new life,
And we'll say our last goodbye,
To all of our friends we've grown to love,
With whom we've laughed and cried.
Remember the fun and laughter,
The problems and the tears,
And watching all of our memories grow,
Throughout our high school years.
The memories of our dances,
And the new friends that we've met,
Vacations, teachers, taking
And exams we'd rather forget.
Yes, high school days are precious, but brief,
Where all your dreams come true,
It is not the end but the beginning,
Of a life we'll start anew.

Greg Gillham - Co-Salutatorian

Sondra Hansen - Valedictorian

Beth Dutcher - Co-Salutatorian

Nancy Vogeler - Soloist

Ushers: Suzzette Morrow, Greg Moody, Annice Malmstrom, Andy Dutcher, Tammie Poss, David Meyer.

Junior Attendants: Ann Noonan and Steven Mallery.

Graduation '83 brought the end to a successful high school career for 32 Seniors. Special music was provided by Nancy Vogeler and the Wildcat Band. Pastor Roger Ainslie-Richards shared thoughts on the graduates futures in his sermon. Pastor Paul Kern led opening and closing prayers. Beth Dutcher and Greg Gillham shared Salutatorian honors, and Sondra Hansen was Valedictorian of the Class of '83. Fourteen seniors received scholarships from various community and school scholarships funds.
