The Junior class is growing in more ways than one. Each and every student is growing in their abilities. The size of the class is the biggest ever. The Juniors are almost to the top and they can't wait until next year. The class as a whole and individually has had many achievements. They are also planning a very successful prom. They are also having candy sales again for a fund raiser.

As the Sophomores come closer to graduation, they grow closer together. With their hectic schedules, the sophomores are involved in every activity. With Mr. Reed, their sponsor, they built the bon fire dummy and held concession stands and a soup supper for a girls and boys home basketball game. The sophomores had a great year.

The Freshmen Class of 1991-92 learned that being in high school isn't all they bargained for. They learned that it is harder and takes a lot more concentration in school work and extra curricular activities. They also found out it could be fun in many ways, too. They loved making lots of money with the "pizza thing" again this year. Hanging out with the upperclassmen was a blast as well. And boy, oh boy did they love playing those awesome NL-S sports. The class enjoyed the 1991-92 year, but are looking forward to their sophomore year.

Past Royalty

1991 Royalty: R. Davis, Princess; K. Dutcher, Prince; J. Sixel, King; and H. Myers, Queen

Homecoming 91 spirit rose as students wore hats, shades, or jerseys; dressed as babies, wore clothing inside-out or backwards; dressed as the Hee-Haw cast; and dressed in black and white formal wear. Thursday evening's Bonfire psyched-up the players. At Friday's rally in North Loup, the Seniors were crowned lip synch and wall decoration winners. The JV VB team beat Palmer in two sets. The varsity VB team won by scores of 15-4 and 15-11. The FB team won over state rated Palmer. The 1991 Royalty was crowned by past king and queen B. Hamer and A. Williams. Everyone danced to the Knights of the Turntable.

What's up, Pop?

This is the real us.

All School Play

Let's get this show on the road!

Cheaper by the Dozen was the all school play on October 29, 1991. This delightful play was about a time-saving, over-protective father, an understanding and sensible mother, and their 12 children. The play, written by Frank and Ernestine Carey Gilbreth, and dramatized by Chris Sergel, took us back to the time of our great grandparents. The action unfolded as two children remembered the beloved times that they had spent with their family. This continued throughout the play to reveal the life that the Gilbreth family lived. Many emotions surfaced, from the hilarity of the capers of the girls as they dated, to the heart-wrenching forseen death of their father, it was truly a memorable play.

You're all nasty little cheats.

This year the Senior class presented the play, "Stop that Villain". This melodrama featured many newcomers to the stage as well as many veterans. Between the snaky charm of the villain and the romance of Little Jane and the town deputy Merton Manly, The audience was kept rolling with laughter!

The theme for the 1992 Junior-Senior Prom was Off To Never Never Land. The Sophomore Servers did a skit of Peter Pan's "Never Land". A castle was the scene for our "Never Land" with shining red, black, and gold surroundings. The meal consisted of prime rib, potatoes, corn, and salads. The speaker was Mr. Medbery and the invocation was delivered by Mr. Shoemaker.

"Who me? Nervous? Heck NO!!!"

"We think we can . . . We think we can."

Class of 1992 . . . Enough Said! This motto clearly expresses what the North Loup-Scotia Seniors were feeling on this glorious day. As they gathered to get their diplomas, there were more nervous looks than teary eyes. After a beautiful ceremony, it was over. You could tell how excited they were by their hasty exits. The Seniors had wonderful last days here at good ol' NL-S. They were able to enter into the "real world" while the rest will stay here. Hopefully, out there, they'll be as appreciated as they were here. They have finally reached the Ultimate.

One Act Play-Madame Butterfly

Madame Butterfly, written by David Bellasco, was this year's selection. The cast owes a great thanks to Mr. Shoemaker, Director, for his time and devotion. The play won Conference and Districts and finished third at State. Congratulations to Dawn Moody, Bekki Edwards, and Larry Danczak for being recognized as outstanding actors.
