Expect Everything

So many good friends, such a great time
 So many memories to hold inside.
 Remembering their faces, seeing their smile
 . . . things we'll take with us mile after mile.
 so many different lives, so much to say.
 It seems it's all going to end, here, today.
 We'll get our diploma, we'll walk out the door.

We weren't just a class, we were much much more.
 We were friends, we were teammates, even enemies at times.

We started out small, we waited in line.
 But this year is ours to write our own book.
 We can't change the past. It's to tomorrow we'll look.

Classmates we were, and always will be.
 It won't matter what paths our lives will lead.
 Friends we are now, and will forever remain,
 because we know things that last never stay the same.
 Of all the words we've learned in all our high school years,
 "goodbye" is the one that always brings tears.

So we won't say goodbye, though it seems we're stuck.
 Never at a loss for words, we wish each other good luck.
 We knew it would come to this, way back in September.
 You won't be forgotten. We'll always remember.

-S.J.
