On Occupation Day Nicki, Sarah, Lisa, Kelly, Lindsey, and Tina were dressed in nurse's uniforms.

Some students got a little messy at the uptown pep rally.

The junior girls take a break from class to show off their flag.

Sara, Sheena, Amy, and Amanda show off their school spirit on Patriotic Day.

Sarah stops for a baby picture.

During the bonfire skit, Nicki cheers on Monte, Brandon, Amy, and Sylvia while they dig into the whipped cream.

Amanda, Jamie, Elizabeth, and Sheena display their serious side on Twin Day.

Teresa and Elizabeth show off their baby outfits.

Amanda, Sheena, and Elizabeth cuddle with their teddy bears.

At the tailgate party, "the boys" got together for a quick picture.

The senior athletes participate in a skit.

Amanda, Monte, and Elizabeth stop for a picture before the crowning.

Time to Remember

Remember...

- Brian's pants fell down during the 4th grade play.
- And the Oscar goes to Nick DeLong for best supporting actress in the Senior Class Play.
- The Keep's little yellow bug.
- The elementary love stories.
- Brian's tall tales.
- Bridget Rasmussen's slip of the tongue, when she meant to say tentacles.
- Brian's waterpickle instead of sea cucumber.
- Virginia Burdick's parties.
- When the boys welded together $2 in change in ag class.
- When our class motto in 7th grade was "quit it, Nick" and "Shut up Brian!"
- In 7th & 8th grade, all of the boys had crushes on Mrs. Marker.
- The boys played janitor and helped save the school from flooding.
- When the girls went to State Basketball.
- Remember our senior class trip to Chicago.
- Our Davis Creek blow out on the last day of school.
- Our great fund-raising idea...selling cookbooks; which you can still buy for $2/a piece.
- Our state runner up Jr. High Ag Quiz Bowl.
- When Jason fought with Mrs. Kern about a.m. and p.m.
- All the interesting times we had in Spanish class with Senora Harris.

When we tried to throw Nick off the railroad tracks.
