

Springfield's September Scavenger Hunt

Springfield Library's September Fun Family Event! Complete as a family—or by yourself!

We highly encourage silly selfies but that is not required :)

If you do take selfies, we would love to share them! Email to springfieldlibrary665@gmail.com.

Return this scavenger hunt to the library (in person, in the book drop, or by email) by Wednesday, September 30th to be entered into a drawing for a $20 Runza gift certificate! One entry per family, please.

On your mark...get set...explore! Find:

Springfield's buffalo grazing on the lawn in one of our parks

The box in town where you can deposit Old Glory

Springfield's most modern-looking building where you can hear bells at noon if you listen

The garden on Main Street that is maintained by the Master Gardeners

A business where the Simpsons live

A pine tree in Springfield Pines

The local business on Main Street that has a Springfield Platteview High School connection

The building in town that is on the National Registry of Historical Places

The marker that tells who donated the land for the MOPAC trail

The business on Main Street that is owned by a person of the same name as the field at the high school

The 'big city' park in town that is for gatherings
