Members of the Wymore Public Library Board met at 7:00 p.m., February 15, 2017, with Gregg Grummert, president, calling the meeting to order.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read. Motion by Brenda Rempe to approve the minutes; seconded by JaNahn VanHorn. Motion carried.

Open issues

It was mentioned by the Librarian that the Foundation has received $75,000 from the Lance Johnson Estate earmarked for a Music Library. Lance's brother, Charles, has offered to assist with suggestions. It was suggested by Brenda Rempe that Yvonne Pettit, Marcia Barr, or other local members of the Cosgrove Music Club be also contacted for suggestions, such as helping with musical programs, funding some instruments at the school, etc.

Also, a donation of $44,000 was made from the Esther Jones Pilster Estate to the Foundation, with no restrictions.

Librarian's Report (See attached)

Unfinished/Old business

It was mentioned that the new book shelves have made a nice addition to the library. The Chapter Chat Book Club was discussed, with several attending the monthly meetings at the Good Samaritan Center. It was also mentioned that the lights have been installed at the front and back of the library.

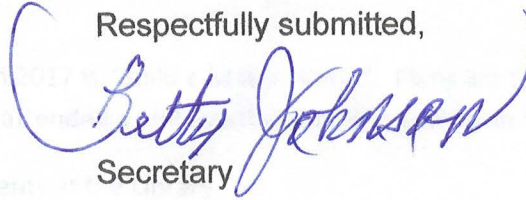

New Business

There was no new business.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 19th, at 7:00 p.m.

Motion to adjourn was made by JaNahn VanHorn, seconded by Gregg Grummert.
Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary

Librarian's report

LEGO Club has started with an average of 15 creators here, each Monday, 4:00 to 5:30. Snacks have been donated. Also more LEGOs! K thru 6th graders and anyone "young" at heart are invited to this free program.

The Summer Reading Program 2017 is "Build a Better World". Plans are to start on Fri. June 9th and end on Friday, July 14th. I attended a SRP event planning in Lincoln in Nov., CE hours were rec'd.

Truck or Treat was a great event, well attended; we ran out of candy and gave away prizes to the winners of our games. This was an Area Fund event for the surrounding communities.

Treasure Hunt(Community Appreciation) was a success, free popcorn and we gave 6 prizes.

I attended an E-Rate program in Nov., and rec'd CE hours. E-Rate is a program for discounts on telephone and internet services.

The Area Fund continues to hold their monthly meetings at the Library.

Chapter Chat Book Club has monthly meetings and they are meeting at the Good Sam. Center, this includes any of the residents.

Park Lodge and Good Sam Center receive bookmobile books twice a month.

In Dec. a Community Cookie Exchange was held at the Library, one evening.

The DAR Chapter out of Fairbury, is holding meetings at the Library, every other month. Several in the area belong or are joining.
