

Kilgore Memorial Library
Director's Report
Prepared for the May 19, 2016
York City Council meeting

1. The Elmer Baker display case is filled with a collection of Lego figures from the collection of Donna Carmine from the Nebraska Brick Store. The Kent Bedient gallery is reserved for the Summer Reading Club that is scheduled to begin on May 19th.
2. Little Ones Storytime and Toddler Dance and Fun Time will resume in September.
3. Rachel Mayfield attended the spring meeting of the Technical Services Round Table of the Nebraska Library Association. This spring workshop was held at the Seward Memorial Library.
4. Judy Andrews made presentations to the two Sertoma groups on the Summer Reading Program for 2016.
5. Two interns, Lauren Boyer and Rachel Rathjen will be helping UNL York County Extension Educators for 4-H youth development provide programming at the library this summer. Programming for two age groups will be offered during a four-week session this summer and we are discussing an after school program for next fall. Another session has been added to this lineup for 8 – 11 year olds. We are offering three sessions of a Coding Workshop. Students pick the date that works best for them and attend one workshop where they will learn the basics of coding through fun and interactive activities. Each participant will learn by programming their own Flappy Bird game.
6. StoryWalk 2016 books will be delivered on the trail the first week of each month through the year.
7. The summer reading SMACKDOWN with Seward will return for adult readers from June 1 through July 30.
8. Jason Vogt has been hired to fill the part-time social media coordinator position created through funding from the County.
9. Mike Teetor, library board president, and Deb Robertson have finished visiting each Village Board in York County. Several great contacts were made and many leads for groups to reach out to in each community were generated.
10. Deb Robertson attended the spring meeting of the Public Library and Trustee section of the Nebraska Library Association held in Ashland, NE. The topic for this day was Social Media for Libraries and many great ideas were shared.
