

Kilgore Memorial Library
Director's Report
Prepared for the December 20, 2018
York City Council meeting

1. The Elmer Baker display case is filled with a collection of book folding art from Kerri Naber. The Kent Bedient Gallery has a display from the York County Ministerial Alliance.
2. StoryWalk 2018 books are selected and being prepared to be delivered on the trail each month through the year. The November/December book is The Counting to Christmas by Nancy Tafuri .
3. The Friends of the Library held another sold-out frozen soup sale on November 24th. There were other vendors invited to join this event this year and the Friends hosted a giving tree with titles of books and movies patrons could purchase for the library collections in this year of budget cuts.
4. Story times for preschoolers have ended for the year. They are scheduled to start again in February.
5. Library staff held a day-long planning session for Summer Reading Club. Dates have been set for June through August. Details will be made public in March of 2019.
6. A special Christmas Night Time Story Time has been added to our calendar on Tuesday, December 18 from 6:30 to 7:30 pm. Carol Baker is leading this event.
7. The special education classes from the York Public Schools continue to come to this library. There are two classes with more than twenty students attending each of the library workshops.
8. We are planning a community Noon-Year's Eve Party at the Library. Everyone is invited to come from 10:00 am until the countdown to a balloon drop at noon. We have scheduled Nancy Beach as a guest storyteller, the Friends of the Library will help with New Year's Bingo and everyone will have time to make a hat and noise maker. Snacks will also be provided by the Friends.
