

Kilgore Memorial Library
Director's Report
Prepared for the February 15, 2018
York City Council meeting

1. The Elmer Baker display case is filled with plush storybook characters from the collection of Children's librarian, Judy Andrews. The Kent Bedient Gallery showcases framed photography of John Turnbull.
2. StoryWalk 2018 books are selected and being prepared to be delivered on the trail each month through the year. The February book is Have You Seen Elephant by David Barrow.
3. A special Read and Rec event was held for the students of the Boost program at YPS. This event included a storytime and craft with the library staff and swimming at the Community Center.
4. A series of workshops titled "Let's Get Digital" promoting electronic reading options from the library has been developed by James Tidei and Deb Robertson. The services being highlighted include OverDrive, RB Digital, NebraskaAccess, American's News, and Learning Express.
5. The library has partnered with the York College Theater Department to host a storytelling event titled, Family Stories to Warm a Chilly Day. Join us on Saturday, February 24th at 11:00 am.
6. Friends of the library annual fundraiser, York Uncorked is scheduled on Saturday, February 10 from 5:30 – 8:00 at the library. Advance ticket sales are available at the Library, Chamber Office, and Kirk's Corner.
7. Deb Robertson was a volunteer judge at the York College's FCCLA Cultivate event. This event gave regional high school students a chance to present their projects prior to going to districts and state competitions.

Respectfully submitted by,

Debora Robertson
