

Kilgore Memorial Library
Director's Report
Prepared for the June 21, 2018
York City Council meeting

1. The Elmer Baker display case and the Kent Bedient Gallery are filled with items on the Summer Reading Club theme of "Libraries Rock!"
2. StoryWalk 2018 books are selected and being prepared to be delivered on the trail each month through the year. The June book is Under Ground by Denise Fleming
3. Summer reading is in full motion. Registration for youth from Preschool through High School began on May 19th. Youth Services Librarian, Judy Andrews reports 502 children in grades P – 5 are registered in Summer Reading Club and they are working their way through levels of reading at a record pace. Activities already completed include two movie days for all ages on May 23rd and June 5th. On June 7th musician, Aaron Fowler kicked off this year's theme, Libraries Rock, with music and more! On June 12th a puppet show was presented by Brian Henning. On June 19 the Rocky Mountain Wizard Show will present for all ages to enjoy.
4. This summer's schedule also includes a Brown Bag Story Time to be held outdoors on Wednesday's on the library lawn, if weather permits. These events will be held inside the library if the weather does not cooperate.
5. Also on the schedule for children going into Kindergarten through 5th grade are workshops led by local 4-H leaders on Thursdays.
6. Friday's include activities for the Middle & High school age participants. Greg Buller and James Tidei are taking the lead on these sessions which include different gaming events for those interested. There are 99 young adults registered in this reading group.
7. We also have a summer reading club for our adult readers, anyone graduated from High School and older. Currently there are 84 registered participants in this group. The activity for this club is to work through a series of six bingo cards encouraging participants to explore different services and collections offered by the library.
8. Library policy review by staff is continues.
9. Collection development and stack maintenance continues. This work is accomplished by all staff as time allows.
10. We have two part-time staff leaving us this summer. We will be advertising these openings in June with an anticipated start date in August.

Respectfully submitted by,

Debora Robertson
Director, Kilgore Memorial Library