

Kilgore Memorial Library
Director's Report
Prepared for the December 21, 2017
York City Council meeting

1. The Elmer Baker display case is filled with angels from the collection of Rosalie Hilmer. The Kent Bedient Gallery showcases framed photography of John Turnbull.
2. StoryWalk 2017 books are selected and being prepared to be delivered on the trail each month through the year. The December book is Snow Dance by Lezlie Evans.
3. Our last Toddler Dance and Fun Time was held on December 13. More than 20 children and their caretakers enjoyed this activity this fall. Storytime and Toddler Dance will return in February of 2018.
4. The library holdings for genealogy and Nebraska History has been inventoried and cataloged all of the items available in these collections can now be located in our online catalog for researchers planning to travel to York to use our local items.
5. The library staff have used their talents to decorate the library for the holidays. Windows are painted by artists Caleb Groves, Sarah Beth Tidei and Diane Crowder. A fireplace, complete with "fire" was constructed along with a Christmas tree and other festive lights. Caleb also created a coloring sheet that is five-feet long for patrons to color while they are in the library.
6. Friends of the library held their annual frozen soup sale on Shop Small Saturday. The event was held at the Senior Center and nearly 200 quarts were sold in less than two hours.
