

It's time for the Summer Reading Program!

This years theme is Imagine Your Story! This has been an unusual year to say the least and keeping with that, the Summer Reading Program is going to be a little different as well.

The actual reading portion of the program will be largely unaffected. Read two hours, get the prizes as listed. Read twenty-four total hours and get all the prizes. Because we're getting a late start the Summer Reading Program will include the remainder of June, and all of July and August. For the time being we aren't planning any get together events but if things change that might get revisited.

That said, there is one project I still want to do... (see back of sheet)

Art Block Project

Since taking over as the director of the Library I've done an abstract art project to be hung up in the library as signage and decoration. I've missed one year as a result of circumstances less odd than this year but I'd still like to have a piece of art to commemorate the Summer of 2020. To that end we'll be providing a couple squares of foam board for everyone who signs up for the reading program and we'd like at least one of them back before September. Normally we provide materials and keep the color scheme specific so everything looks good together. This year instead of a color theme we are going with "The Sun". Do whatever you like so long as it has some kind of connection to the sun. If you don't have art materials we'll be happy to help at the Library as much as we can without having too many people at once. Any questions of course, just let us know.

Out of City Limits Kids

If you live outside of the City Limits and want to participate in the Summer Reading Program we offer a temporary free membership during the Summer break. The Summer Reader Membership lasts until September 1st after which you can choose to renew the membership at the regular rate of fifteen dollars per year..

Mind you this is fifteen dollars per YEAR. If you check out three books rather than buying them the membership will have paid for itself and, to break down the cost a bit further, fifteen dollars per year = $1.25 per month = Less than a nickel a day. Membership also comes with access to Overdrive which can be used most anywhere that you can connect to the internet.

What you need in short:

- ♦ A parent or guardian to help sign you up for a card.
- ♦ The desire to read (and get prizes for doing so!)
